INTRODUCTION

The system of Visitation, whereby the bishop supervises his diocese, was the growth of many centuries, and, perfected in the Middle Ages, was handed down with little alteration until modern times. In this publication we are concerned, not with a Visitation itself, but with an inquiry made by a bishop in advance of his Visitation, a procedure which took its rise at the beginning of the eighteenth century. It was in 1706 that William Wake, later Archbishop of Canterbury, made his primary Visitation of the diocese of Lincoln, and in preparation for it, addressed a Letter of Advertisement to his clergy, with a series of questions, "taking this opportunity," as he said, "to desire you when you come to the Visitation, to bring with you in writing the best account you can of your several parishes in the following particulars." These questions demanded the name of the parish and its extent, the name of the patron, the value of the living, and the numbers of the Dissenters and of meeting-houses. They made inquiry as to any Person of Quality or Gentleman of Estate residing within the parish, and as to any antiquities or any monuments of note in the church. Similar letters and questions were circulated for subsequent Visitations, and the practice was continued by Bishop Wake's successor, Edmund Gibson, at his primary Visitation in 1718, when he issued a Letter and Queries in anticipation of it. "The Practice of transmitting queries to the Clergy, which was begun by my Pious and Learned Predecessor, is of such great and apparent use that I should think myself much wanting, not only to myself, but to my successors, if I did not continue it." The list of questions was slightly extended.

In the diocese of Oxford this method of inquiry was adopted by Bishop Secker for his Visitation in 1738, "being desirous to obtain as particular a knowledge as I can of the State of my Diocese in order to qualify myself for being more useful in it." This opportunity of acquainting the bishop with the conditions prevailing in the parishes of his diocese evidently proved of such value as to be permanently retained, and similar letters and questions were published for the Visitations of his successors. Indeed the list of questions continued to lengthen from the twelve compiled by Bishop Secker in 1738 to the more penetrating series of thirty issued in the name of Bishop Bagot precisely a century later.

The queries for the Visitation of 1854 are the first we have for the episcopate of Bishop Samuel Wilberforce—any issued for his earlier Visitations are not available—and the lists with the answers returned by the incumbents (or curates) of the Archdeaconry of Oxford are here printed by kind permission of the Lord Bishop of the diocese. They are bound together in one volume, now deposited in the Bodleian Library (MS. Oxford Diocesan Papers d. 707), and are arranged in alphabetical order of parishes, as also are those for the other two archdeaconries. It is believed that in the lapse of a century the material has acquired historical value, and the year 1854 appears peculiarly opportune in more than one respect. Wilberforce, the "remodeller of the episcopate," had been ruling his extensive diocese for nine years, a period long enough to allow his abundant energy, reforming zeal, and dominating personality to be reflected in the life of the diocese. His aims and ideals are fully expounded in the triennial charges delivered to his clergy, and the returns made by them for his successive Visitations are evidence of the progress he was making. Other factors combined to make the decade 1850-60 a period of unusually rapid change for the Church of England as a whole. The impulse of the Oxford Movement was now percolating into the parishes, even in the country, and many tokens of the views and practices associated with this revival may be found in our returns. Moreover, the effects of the drastic reforms in the organization of the Church introduced within the previous twenty years, were making themselves felt in the parishes. "Non-residence, pluralism, the ubiquity of the parochial curate in place of the parson or vicar were as familiar in the reign of George III as in the reign of Henry VIII, and the ecclesiastical legislation of 1836-40 destroyed far more of the old system than the Reformation had overthrown." In 1854 the absentees belong to an older generation of the clergy and are rapidly dying out. The Rector of Middleton Stoney is the last of a long race of wealthy pluralists.

The returns are of value as well for the social as for the ecclesiastical historian. There is evidence for the strength of dissent and for schools and for adult education. The questions relating to the fabric and the fittings of the church are of interest for a period when an unusually large number of ancient buildings were suffering restoration. Doubtless many incumbents would have concurred with the report of the Vicar of Chesterton that "we are now scraping and cleaning." Frequent allusions to desk and pulpit suggest that the old "three-deckers" were being dismantled and resolved into their component parts.

Only one of the questions calls for more than passing comment. No. 19, relating to the Census, is peculiar to this Visitation and was omitted in 1857. The Census Bill of 1850 had authorised the Secretary of State to issue in the census of the following year questions as to such "further particulars" as might seem to him advisable, and the Registrar-General took advantage of this clause to gather intelligence about the religious and scholastic institutions of the country. After some discussion in Parliament the Religious Census, as it was called, was made voluntary, and confined to an inquiry as to the existing accommodation for religious worship and the attendance at all places of worship on the Census Sunday, March 31 1851. The proposal was bitterly opposed by the Bishop of Oxford, who on March 27 1851, presented in the House of Lords a petition from the Deanery of Newbury, praying that the answers be made compulsory or the questions be withdrawn. The replies, he said, would necessarily be vague and incorrect, and the general result would be conducive to the propagation of error rather than truth. Garbled statistics would be obtained, and had not Mr. Canning once observed that nothing was so fallacious as facts, except statistics? There can be little doubt that the Bishop was voicing the alarm of many Churchmen and their suspicion of the use that might be made of the figures resulting from the census. In recent years the Church had lost many of its ancient privileges and others were in jeopardy.

The report (abridged) of the Religious Census was published in 1854, and fortified by the answers to his Visitation queries Wilberforce returned to the attack in the House of Lords on July 11. The Census Sunday had been wet and the Church congregations had been smaller than was usual. Many of the clergy regarded the questions as important or intrusive, and had neglected to make their returns. The Dissenters, on the other hand, had resorted to every ingenious device to pack their conventicles, and in many cases the numbers recorded were greatly in excess of the available accommodation. The only consolation he could derive from the figures was “to thank God that the great majority of the people of the country do still belong to the Established Church.”

Perhaps the Bishop succeeded in his manifest intention to deride and discredit the Religious Census of 1851, as the experiment was not repeated. The Census Bill of 1860 contained a clause requiring under penalty the disclosure of every individual’s “religious profession,” but was withdrawn under pressure from the Dissenters as “an infraction of religious liberty.” Presumably the Church stood to gain by a compulsory return, when many, who were not in the habit of attending Church services, might be expected to declare themselves members of the Establishment. A voluntary return, based upon the congregations of a given Sunday, was calculated to yield a higher proportion for Dissenters.

The question relating to Charity Sermons raises points of interest. The parish churches were still maintained by compulsory Church rates, and, apart from the alms at the Communion service, collections were seldom taken except on the rare occasions of a royal brief or an appeal from the bishop. Among the objects for which support was asked in 1854 was the welfare of the wives and children of the soldiers serving in the Crimean War. This contribution had been made on the public day of Solemn Fast, Humiliation and Prayer, observed by the Queen’s command on Wednesday April 26.

In the previous year the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel had benefited by a Royal Letter, accounting for the many references to the “Queen’s Letter” in the Visitation answers. Collections for this Society had been taken in this way at intervals since 1771, but the royal patronage was now bestowed for the last time. When the Society next applied in 1856 the Secretary of State refused to advise the Queen to issue another brief. Thus “the promotion of the moral and religious welfare of Her Majesty’s subjects in all parts of the world failed to be recognised as a valid plea for the renewal of the Royal favour.”

Many parishes also contributed in response to the Bishop’s urgent appeal on behalf of the new Training College for Schoolmasters at Culham, one of the favourite enterprises launched by Samuel Wilberforce. The foundation-stone had been laid in 1851, and the College, though still unfinished, had been opened on June 6 1853. But the future was clouded by a large financial deficit and payment of the debt by Lady Day 1854 was a condition of a government grant. A fair sum of money is said to have been raised by the church collections. An earlier appeal had been made for Cuddesdon Theological College, and a few collections are noted in the return. The buildings were completed, and the College had just been opened on June 15.

It is scarcely necessary to add by way of explanation that the term “Ranters” was a popular and suggestive nickname for the Primitive Methodists, then at the peak of their activities. They were evidently thorns in the flesh of the country parsons. "National schools," of which many are recorded, were those supported by the National Society for promoting the Education of the Poor in the Principles of the Established Church, while "British schools" were sponsored by its Dissenting antagonist, the British and Foreign School Society.

For convenience the questions have been printed separately on the first page, and the answers alone have been transcribed under the names of the parishes. Where no answer has been given the number of the question has been omitted. Peculiarities of spelling and punctuation and the use of capital letters have been as far as possible retained.

As a commentary on the text occasional use has been made in the footnotes of the Bishop's Diocese Book (1854—1), to which he confided the impressions, gained on his confirmation tours, of the clergy and their parishes and frequently of the churches, in which he preached. To make them relevant quotations have for the most part been confined to the period of a calendar year from the Visitation. In a few cases it has been felt more discreet to substitute a bare reference for quotation, which the curious are at liberty to investigate for themselves.

VISITATION

[You are requested to write down in the space left at the top of this Paper the Name of your Parish or District in large and distinct characters.]

26, Pall Mall, July 3rd, 1854.

Reverend Sir,

INTENDING, by God’s permission, to hold my ordinary visitation on days which will speedily be notified to you, and being desirous of obtaining previously such information as may enable me to render it effectual to the purposes for which it is designed, I request that you will return full and explicit answers to the following queries, writing the answer to each query in the blank column. You will be pleased to send this paper, so filled up, and signed by yourself, by post, addressed to me at 26, Pall Mall, before the 8th instant.

I am,

Reverend Sir,

Your affectionate Brother,

S. Oxon.

QUERIES PREPARATORY TO VISITATION, TO BE ANSWERED BY THE OFFICIATING MINISTER

1. What is the name and address of the Incumbent? and the date of his institution and induction?
2. Has he during the last year been resident during the time prescribed by law?
3. Does he perform the whole duty, or has he an assistant Curate?
4. Does he hold any other benefice, or serve any other cure? and if so, What?
5. Is the Curate, if any, duly licensed?—What is the date of his licence?
6. What is his name?—Is he Priest or Deacon?
7. Does he perform any other duty as Incumbent, Curate, Lecturer, Chaplain, Master or Assistant in any school, and where?
8. State the duty performed in your church or chapel in each week; specifying how often Divine Service is performed, the hours at which it commences, and the number of sermons preached.
9. When do you catechise the children of your parish? and what method of catechising do you pursue?
10. How often do you administer the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper?
11. What is the average number of communicants at the great festivals? What is the average number at other seasons? Do you keep a list of communicants?
12. What is the average number of your congregation? Is it increasing or decreasing?
13. Does it bear a fair proportion to the population of the parish? If not, to what do you attribute the deficiency?
14. State the different objects for which Charity Sermons have been preached in your church within the last year.
15. What Schools are there in your parish: distinguishing daily schools for Adults, for Children, and for Infants under six years of age, and Sunday schools: how are they supported, and how many scholars are there in each?
16. Are you able to retain your young people in your Sunday School after they have ceased to attend the Daily School?

17. Have you adopted any other mode of retaining them under instruction by Adult or Evening Schools? And if so, what success have you found to attend such schools?

18. What Dissenting places of worship are there, and what is the probable number of Dissenters in your parish or chapelry?

19. Can you give me any information as to the correctness of the numbers given in the recent Census of members of the Church and of Dissenters, or as to the mode in which the returns were made on which those estimates were founded?

20. Can you mention any thing which specially impedes your own ministry or the welfare of the Church around you? Can you, if so, suggest any remedies?

21. Is your church or chapel in good repair, and duly provided with all things necessary for the decent performance of divine service, according to law?—Do your Churchwardens regularly discharge their duties?

22. Have any alterations been made in the church or chancel, either as to the fabric or in the manner of fitting up, since my last visitation, and if so, under what authority? Specify what they are.

23. Is there any other matter which you think it expedient to bring under the Bishop's notice?

(Signed) Incumbent.

9. Every Sunday in Boys and Girls Schools alternately. Publicly in Church every Sunday afternoon in Lent after the 2nd Lesson. In publick catechising I use "Mants Ch. Catechism explained" as a Text Book which the children learn. On this I question them taking a third part of the Catechism each Lent.

11. About 50. Easter the greatest 98. Ascension Day the least 16.

12. Morning. For several Sundays that I have noticed it has varied from 170 adults to 200.
   Afternoon from 250 to 300. Regular congregation and communicants increasing since Dec. 51.

13. A very fair proportion compared with the surrounding parishes, but I cannot secure two regular attendances from the mass of those who might come.
   The hour of service 11 a.m. suits the rich and not the poor.

15. There are three Schools for the children of the Poor.

The Congregation varies in number who attend, according to the weather and the distance from the church.

Certainly not. In consequence of Dissent, disinclination to attend the church and the distance many reside from the church.

Only a Sunday School at Ambrosden, and a dame school at one of the hamlets. Schools are much needed, but the population including the two hamlets very poor, both Farmers and Labourers. Landed property very much divided. Dissent much amongst them and no prospect of acquiring any funds for that purpose.

BAMPTON 2ND PORTION.

1. Dacres Adams, Bampton, Witney
   Instituted 12 May, 1837
2. Yes
3. He performs the whole duty of his Portion.
4. He has no other benefice.
8. There are four churches or chapels in the parish. In the church at Bampton there is daily service at 11 o’clock on Litany days and at 5 on the other days. On Sundays two services with sermons at 11 and 3, and at the other three chapels one service with sermon alternately. 1

1” The Church of Bampton is open for divine service on Sundays at the hours of 11 and 3, and on Wednesdays and Fridays at 11. To these have of late been added services in the chancel at 8 in the morning on ordinary days, and at 11 and 4 on Saint days. The Sunday services are on the whole well attended but at the weekly services there is but a scanty congregation owing, no doubt, to the laborious daily occupation of the inhabitants.” J. A. Giles, History of the Parish and Town of Bampton (1848), p. 30.
9. For a few Sundays in the year after the second Lesson during afternoon service, and always in the school before service. I do not confine myself to the words of the Catechism, but bring forward those subject which I consider most useful to the children and congregation.

10. Every month and also on the great Festivals.

11. About 60 at the great festivals and between 45 and 50 at other services. I do keep a list of communicants.

12. I cannot state this with any accuracy, perhaps between 8 and 900, in all four churches on Sundays. The afternoon service is generally well attended. I do not think the number at all decreases.

13. It does not. I attribute the deficiency partly perhaps to the peculiar circumstances of this parish with 3 incumbents, which somewhat unsettles the parishioners, partly to the more exciting and more attractive doctrine of the Dissenters with regard to election and such other like subjects, but chiefly to the careless indifference of professed Churchmen.

14. For the wives and families of the soldiers and sailors and for the Queen's Letter.

15. The boys and girls school at Bampton and a mixed school in one of the hamlets daily. Sunday schools 4, supported chiefly by endowment and the rest by voluntary subscription. Bampton schools daily and Sunday about 140 children. In the hamlets about 100 altogether on Sundays, and 40 in the mixed school.

16. Many of the girls remain, but very few boys.

17. I have had an evening school in the winter for some years, but it has fallen off for the last two years. It has done some good, but I have been rather disappointed at the result.

18. There is one small Baptist Meeting House at Bampton and two others in different hamlets. I cannot be accurate respecting the number of Dissenters, perhaps about 300 professed members, but more who occasionally attend their meetings.

19. I myself made the returns as carefully as I could, but I can give no information about any thing else.

20. Perhaps the special impediment in the parish is that there are three Portionists with equal power and authority, and in the church around a want of cordial co-operation among the clergy.

21. The church is in tolerable repair, but requires much to be done to restore it to its former fair proportions, and to make the settings more appropriate for Divine Worship.

22. None lately.

23. Nothing that I can think of at present.

BAMPTON 3RD PORTION

1. The Revd. Ralph Barnes residing at Ardington, Berks.

7. No.
8. At Bampton, Sundays 11 a.m. 3 p.m., Wednesdays and Fridays 11 a.m., other days 5 p.m., Saints days II and 5. There is a sermon on Wednesdays in Advent and Lent. At Aston Shifford and Lew services at 11 a.m. and 2.30 p.m. alternately.
9. The children are catechised in school before service
10. At Bampton the first Sunday in every month.
At the other churches 6 times a year on the average.
11. At Bampton about 70, at other seasons about 40.
At Aston Shifford and Lew the number is but small. I have kept no list of communicants.
12. The congregations seem on the whole increasing.
I have no means of reckoning the different numbers 17. There was an adult school last winter for about 3 months, about 30 young men attended
20. The present division of the Parish duties does not appear to work well either in the Church or Parish. There appears however no remedy for this until the death of one of the incumbents and the separation of the Parishes.

19. It is impossible with the present lax boundary to the Church of England to say, who are hers and who not, almost all the poor receive our ministrations, and about half the other classes.
I have made enquiry as to the census and can hear nothing.

20. The faculties which exist by Act of Parliament on the pews of the Mother church, and the law of Church rates.

21. Both are so

22. Two new churches have been consecrated in the Parish, which remains as at first. A curtain has been erected to keep out the wind in the old church, otherwise no alterations.

23. No

¹J. H. Blunt, Dictionary of Sects, etc. (1874) gives us the choice of (1) Campbellites or Rowites, followers of the Rev. John McLeod Campbell convicted of heresy by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland. He was ministering at this time in a chapel of his own in Glasgow. Only twenty five persons were recorded in the 1851 census as attending the Campbellite place of worship on the census Sunday. Dr. Campbell “never attempted to found a sect.” (D.N.B.) (2) American Campbellites, a species of Baptists. “A few are to be found in England.”

1. Charles Forbes. March 1846
2. Yes
3. Performs the whole duty
4. No
7. Chaplain of the Banbury Union Work-House
8. Two full services on Sundays, ½ before 11 o’C and ½ past 6 o’C. Morning prayers on Wednesdays and Fridays, Saints Days etc.
9. No schools in my Parish. The children attend the National Schools in the other parish, which are supported by both parishes.
10. Monthly
11. At great Festivals about 55, at other seasons abt. 40. My congregation is chiefly composed of mechanics and the lower classes, who have not been much accustomed to church, but still there is a deplorable lack of attendance.
There is no falling off in my Congregation. Banbury has been proverbial for Dissent. Chiefly in support of conducting Divine Service, there being no Church Rates.

No schools. Primitive Methodists, Roman Catholics, Baptists, Ranters etc. and a host of denominations too numerous to particularize, as the several sects are so differently named.

The return in the recent Census of the population of South Banbury was most erroneously given, and this drew my attention to it before it was published and led to a correspondence, which ended in my giving a probable acct. from the numbers of houses.

1. The want of the regular machinery of schools. 2. There is more to do in such a parish than the physical and mental strength of one man can possibly accomplish to his satisfaction, and the Vicar has not means to employ a Curate or Curates. Yes. Most efficiently in every respect.

8. In Lent they are catechized in the church.
9. Once a month
10. 8 communicants
11. 120 to 150
12. The population members 400
13. For Culham and Barford Church.
14. A day school for children above 5 yrs. and another for infants. The former is supported by the contributions of a very few, the latter assisted. In the former the average is 50, in the latter 10.
15. A few.
16. We propose establishing an adult school in the winter evenings
17. There are 2, the one a Baptist and the other Wesleyan. In the latter are 6 or 7 members and an average attendance of from 20 [?] to 50, in the former are 2 members and an attendance of from 7 to 10.
18. When the census was made in the incumbency of Mr Hall the Wesleyans were more numerous.
19. We hope the worst impediments have been removed.
20. The chancel is in bad state and the tower. The rest of the Church is good.
21. The nave and south aisle have been lately restored.

9. Not in church
10. Once a month and or Festivals
11. About 20. Seldom more than 30
12. It remains much the same
13. In the afternoon, but not in the morning
14. For the training school at Culham
15. 2 mixed, one infant, 2 Sundays. Supported endowment, subscriptions and the children's pence.
16. For a while but not very regularly
17. By evening schools with better success the last winter than heretofore, but the numbers not so great as they might have been.
18. None
21. The flooring of the nave is not in good repair.
22. A pair of altar candlesticks and some stands for candles have been presented, wch. I did not consider myself at liberty to refuse.

9. Catechizing in Lent, on Sunday afternoons after 2nd Lesson.
10. Monthly, and on great Festivals
11. Average No. of Comts. fr. July/53 to July /54=114. I do not find the number vary much upon great Festivals
12. I can only guess at the average. I shd. say taking M. and Ev. it was about 30, but the aften. service is attended better than M. I believe it to be about the same as it has been for some years
14. Culham Dioc. Training School

8. Divine service 3 times on Sunday at 11 a.m. and at 3 and 7 p.m., three sermons, or 2 do. and catechising. Also at 9 every morning except Saturdays, at 11 a.m. (with sermon) on all Festivals, and at 7 p.m. every Wednesday, more in Lent
9. In school, and at church in the afternoon service sometimes. Catechising by question and answers
10. On 1st Sunday of every month, and at the three Great Festivals
11. From 30 to 40 generally.
No.
12. Not decreasing, rather the contrary.
13. No. There is a great deal of dissent here, and many, I fear, go no where, especially in the hamlets.
15. A daily school for boys and girls about 60 do do infants about 70
   A Sunday do for boys and girls — 80
   Supported by volun. subsns. and children's pence
16. Very seldom
17. The Evening school in winter is very badly attended
18. Several meeting-houses, chiefly held in cottages.
19. I did not make any return on the subject.
20. Dissent, and the great number of public houses, 14 or 15.
21. 1. The chancel is still in an unsatisfactory state.
   2. Yes
22. The nave has been re-pewed, with open seats.
   Your Lordship has seen it since.
23. This living, with a population of 1,300, is under £200 per ann., the people very poor, rates very high, the great tithes more than £1000 per ann. are wholly alienated at present from us, conducing nothing towards the very heavy burdens of keeping up the schools, clubs, relieving the sick, poor etc. etc. Ought not this to be changed if possible? The Dean and Chapter of Ch. Ch. own the tithes, and lease them out to a layman here.

7. No
8. Three full services on the Sunday, \( \frac{1}{2} \) past 10, 3, and at \( \frac{3}{2} \) past six.
9. They are catechized every week.
10. On the 1st Sunday in every month, and on New Years Day, Easter Sunday, Whitsunday and Christmas
11. About 130 on great festivals, 100 generally, perhaps rather more.
No, because I know them all.
12. Morng. about 800, afternoon 1000, Evg. about 400.
About the same at all times.
13. Yes, very fair.
15. Two old foundation schools. The National school for girls. Blue Coat for boys. No infant school, one much wanted. The state of my schools the source of constant anxiety.
16. Very frequently, but when they leave the daily school, it is generally to go into service, and then we lose them.
17. No
18. Two, Independent and Wesleyan. I can scarcely say what number of dissenters, but they come to church generally once on the Sunday.
19. No
20. No, nothing in particular

Perp. Curate of Binsey from May 1845
2. Yes
3. Yes
4. No
7. None of these duties. But duties in the University.
8. Prayers and Sermon every Sunday once, viz. the Morning and Afternoon Service on alternate Sundays. The same once on Good Friday and Christmas Day. At 11 a.m. and 2:30 or 3 p.m. according to the light.
9. The few whom I can get to catechise, I teach in the Sunday Schools
10. Monthly. But sometimes there are not enough to communicate monthly.
11. For the last year it averages between 4 and 5, throughout. I keep the numbers always : and I know the persons well enough.
12. About 20. Just now, accidentally, decreasing, through (a few) deaths and departures from the place.
13. I believe it bears a fair proportion, compared with larger places, and perhaps also, considering the state of ignorance of some, and past neglect ; but there is much godless apathy, which no human means seem able to touch.

\(^1\)Robert Hussey (1801-56) was appointed in 1842 the first Regius Professor of Ecclesiastical History. D.N.B.
VISITATION 1854

15. One small Sunday School containing all the children whom I can get in the parish: of whom very few are old enough to learn anything from me. There is a small benefaction, £6 per annum, which supports this.
18. None
20. Nothing special
21. Yes. But I have only one Churchwarden: the Parish has not been able to furnish two for many years.
22. New Communion Table, to replace the shabby dirty old one, and a new cloth, and hangings for the pulpit; put up by the Parish and myself. But I am not quite sure now, whether before or after the last visitation
23. Only that among these questions it might have been convenient that the number of the population of each parish shd. have appeared, as well as the amount of Church attendance.

Bix

1. Horace Robert Pechell
   Bix, Henley on Thames. 1822
2. He has
3. He has an Assistant Curate
4. He does not
5. He is duly licensed, in the Diocese, about ten or eleven years ago.
7. He has lately been appointed Chaplain at the Union School at Wargrave.
8. Service on Sunday at eleven o'clock in the morning and Sermon
10. Five times in the year
11. From 25 to 30.
   I do not.
12. From 50 to 70.
13. To those who are within reach of the Church.
14. None have been preached.
15. There is a daily and a Sunday school, supported wholly by myself.
16. Some few
17. No dissenting places of worship, and scarcely any dissenters.
21. I have no complaint to make against the Churchwardens.
22. There have been none.

BLACKBOURTON

1. James Lupton. Instituted and inducted 1827
2. He has.
3. He has had occasional assistance from Oxford.
4. He holds the Rectory of St. Michael Queenhithe, London
8. Full service with sermon twice every Sunday and on great Festivals. Service begins at eleven in the morning, and three in the afternoon, except in the summer months, when we sometimes have service in the evening. Examine the children at the Sunday school in the Church Catechism.
10. On great Festivals and at Michaelmas. I keep a list of communicants and
11. my numbers range from 21 to 9.
12. I would like the churchwardens to answer this question.
13. I think it does.
14. A Queen's Letter, and for the Fulham Schools [sic]
15. Merely a Sunday School
18. There is a Dissenting Chapel, and I think the poor generally are inclined to be dissenters.
19. I cannot.
20. My great want is a day school. I am shorn of my strength entirely for want of one. I could make use of the school for giving lectures at night and otherwise instructing my poor ignorant congregation.
21. The church is not in good repair and I do not think the churchwardens do their duty.
22. None
23. Nothing but to draw your Lordship’s attention to my great want—a school.

Parish of BLETCHINGDON

1. Thos. Dand, Bletchingdon Rectory, Oxford. August 1846
2. He has been resident during the time
3. He performs the whole duty without an assistant curate
4. No
5. No curate
7. None
8. Sunday morning service at 11 o’clock. Evening service at 3 o’clock. Two sermons preached, except in December and January, when the children are catechised in the afternoon instead of a sermon. The catechism is chiefly on the Collect and Gospel of the day, or the Catechism and Liturgy
10. Six times in the year
11. Forty five and forty probably. There are I believe about one hundred persons in the parish, who have communicated once or oftener since I have been here, but I have no list
12. Probably 200 in the morning and 150 in the afternoon, not decreasing certainly.
13. Yes, comparatively so far as I know from clergymen who have officiated here.
15. Day and Sunday schools for boys and girls. The day schools supported chiefly by Lord Valentia, the Sunday schools by the Clergyman. There are about 70 day scholars and 65 Sunday scholars
16. Generally
17. No
18. There is a place where the Ranters come to preach occasionally, but I believe there are no professed Dissenters except two Scotch Presbyterians and two Roman Catholics.
19. I believe that no persons were returned as Dissenters here in the recent census, but many of the poor here as elsewhere will attend both Church and Meeting
20. I can, but not a remedy.
21. The Church is in good repair and duly provided according to law.
22. No
23. No.

8. On Weekdays Mattins in Summer at 8; in winter at 9.
   Evensong in Summer at 6.30; at 4.
   On Sundays Holy Comm. at 8 (except Gt. Festivals and First Sunday in the month). Morning Service at 10.30; Aftn. at 3; and in summer
   Evg. service at 6.30. A sermon at all except 8 at the H.C.
   On Holy Days—On Vigil Evensong and sermon at 6.30; H. Com. at 8 a.m.; Morng. Serv. at 10.30; Evensong at 6.30 (S); 4 (Winter).
9. Always on Sundays, once a week or the Ch. Catm. besides. Also at sundry times in the schools using catechetical manuals, such as J. M.
   Chanter's Help Catm. bef. Ch. Catm.2 and Hopwood's Previous Exercises to Ch. Catm.3
10. On Great Festivals (inclg. Ascension Day) and on 1st Sunday in the month after the morning service at 10.30. On other Sundays and Holy Days at 8 provided there are 3 communicants beside the Priest.
11. The average has not been kept. Have had on Christmas Day 44 comts.
    on Easter Day 51; generally on first Sunday of month abt. 30.
    On other Sundays and Holy Days not more on an average than a bare congregation: often not enough to continue celebration.
12. Between 300 and 400, I think.
    It remains about the same.
13. By no means. I attribute it partly to previous neglect of the parish:
    partly to much indifference to religion in the parish: partly to my own deficiencies in promoting religion and to the general dislike of High Churchmanship.
14. In the past year fr. July 1853 to July 1854 Charity sermons have been preached for "Culham Training College," "The Parochial Schools"; the "Soc. for Propg. the Gospel"; "The Wives and Chren. of Soldiers and Sailors ordered to the War"; the Sons of the Clergy and Clergy Orphan Societies; and the Annual Expenses of the Church.

myself abt. (£25). There are Sunday Schools; one for Boys one for Girls. These about 70 girls and 40 boys. There are other schools (Dissenting etc.) in the Parish, this number I don’t know.

16. During the two years I have been here I have been able to do so pretty well
17. I tried an Adult Man and Boys School last winter; but it was not successful—I only obtained those boys who come to the Sunday School. I propose trying it again next winter 18. There are 2 small Meeting Houses: one had an attendance I am told of
abt. 100 (Baptists), the other I do not know (Wesleyans). I do not know the probable No. of Dissenters: many Ch. people go to Meeting in the evening
19. As the return was made before my appointment I cannot speak on this head.
20. I do not know anything wh: specially impedes my ministry.\
21. The Church is in good repair and duly provided.\
22. The Churchwardens I think discharge their duties as far as they are able.
23. There is much complaint abt. pews etc. The Misses Cother from not havg. obtained such a pew as they desired have now left the Church and go regularly to an adjoining Church. There is also a habit of letting the pews for money; and parties offer them for sale.\
The above returns apply to Bloxham only: Milcombe is not included, as it is now all but separated from Bloxham.

4 A more exhaustive answer to this question was returned in 1857.
5 In 1850 we removed all pews in the Chancel and in front of the Screen: and placed open benches in the Chancel. The pews before the screen were erected in another part of the ch. At the same time the Pulpit and Desk were removed: and the Screen cut down.    — Church other seasons 13 20 — Chapel do. 7
I keep a list of communicants.

12. At Church 130 Morn. 82 Eveng.
At the Chapel 54 Aft.
It is slightly on the increase.

13. The Congregation at the Chapel does, but not so that at the Church. The deficiency is attributable to the distance of the large hamlet of Filkins from the Church, the prevalence of dissent, some of the inhabitants going to Broughton Church, and the insufficient pastoral superintendence for 50 years.

15. One Church daily school for children at Bradwell. 2 do. Dames’ schools for infants also at Filkins, one Dame a member of the Church, the other a Primitive Methodist. Abt. 12 children at each of their schools. At the Bradwell Ch. school an average attendance of 47. The children pay a penny a week and the rest of the funds obtained by voluntary contributions. A Sunday school at Bradwell of 70 children, and at Kelmscott of 25.

16. Abt. 13

17. I have a class of 9 senior children on Sunday mornings who will not go to school. I have no adult or evening school.

18. There is a Baptist meeting house and room for the Primitive Methodists. The number including children I shd. say 210

19. The numbers given in the recent census of members of the Church was taken by myself. I do not know how the Dissenters returns were made, and from this paper having to be returned to-day wh. I received only yesterday evening I cannot obtain this information

20. The impediments are part neglect, distance of the hamlet of Filkins frm. the Ch., the non-observance of Daily Service or the days ordered to be kept holy by the Church in the neighbouring parishes

21. The Church and Chapel are both so.
Two of the Churchwardens do. The other is not a Communicant and seldom at Church, his excuse for the latter neglect his being a Farrier.

9. Before morning and after evening service. Sometime the children repeat the Catechism, at others are examined as to the meaning of the usual parts of it, and at others read the lessons for the day and are questioned thereon.

10. Six times in the year.

11. From 20 to 30, the numbers are not larger on the great festivals than on other occasions as the poor usually go to see their friends at these seasons. No list of communicants is kept.

12. From 80 to 100
I trust not decreasing

13. With many it is a custom not to attend more than once a day especially with the farmers. The generality of the poor are tolerably punctual and attentive.

14. For the annual Queen's Letter and on the day of Humiliation for the Widows of Sailors.

15. A day School supported partly by voluntary contribution and partly by children's pence, the Scholars averaging about 25. A Sunday School supported by the Rector of about 30 children.

16. But few boys. The girls continue longer

18. No place of Dissenting Worship, about 6 persons of various denominations

Sundays,—on 1 Sunday in each month two full services with sermons and admin. of the Eucharist. On the remaining Sundays of the month an afternoon Service and sermon. In winter, an evening Litany on Fridays with serial Lecture, in Advent and Lent.
9. The children are catechised in School by the Clergy 2 days in every week (Tuesdays and Thursdays)—and in Church before the congregation (frequently) on Fridays

   Burford abt 500. FB. 120

13. It bears a fair ratio compared with the average of the census returns elsewhere, but I think it far below what it ought to be, and have attempted to encrease it by making the accomodation for the poor better. The state of our pews is the chief drawback on numbers.

14. 1. The Parish Schools

    3. The S.P.G.

15. Day Schools. One Boys School, actual attendce. 70

   Adult Schools, in winter only: abt. 40.
   There are some small schools for very young children kept by Dames, and one ancient Free School with about 7 boys

16. Partially so, better in the case of females who continue under training as confirmants. The males go to work earlier, and soon acquire a tone from the Men.

17. The Adult Schools have been already mentioned. It is in contemplation to open a Reading Room, but the grown men are almost too illiterate to avail themselves of it. I cannot say Adult Schools succeed here as I expected.

18. There is no formidable Dissent now in Burford, the Wesleyan schools are abandoned.
   1 Wesleyan Chapel. 1 Baptist Chapel. 1 Plymouth Brothers
   100 ? 50 ? 30 ?

19. My observation extends only to a very narrow circle. The Dissenters returns made here would take in stragglers from all country places within a 5 mile circuit, and would not represent Burford, but its extra parochial neighbourhood

20. Pure indifference, and gross drunkenness are greater impediments here than any sectarian opposition.

21. Everything is done very decently, the buildings are in sound repair.¹

22. No alteration.

¹The Bishop confirmed here on March 23 1855. He commented that the church was "too long and galleried-up to be good for the purpose." Diocese Book, f. 161.

CASSINGTON, OXON.

1. Thomas Forster. March 1824
2. No
3. He performs the whole duty.
4. No
5. There is no Curate
6. Morning and Evening Service on Sundays and Christmas Day with sermon in the Morning. Morning Service with sermon on Good Friday.
7. After the 2nd lesson on Sunday afternoons. I use the Church Catechism and sometimes the explanation published by the S.P.G. Society. They are also questioned by me in school on the portions of Scripture read by them.
8. On the great Festivals and at Michaelmas
9. No. It has decreased, but is now again increasing.
10. About 60 or 70 adults: and from 50 to 60 children.
11. No. It has decreased in consequence of most of the cottages receiving as lodgers rail-road labourers for about 3 years, many of them being irreligious and vicious persons.
12. A sermon was preached for the S.P.G. Society under the Queen's Letter.
13. A collection was also made for the soldiers wives and families
14. The boys are educated by the Trustees of Goring Heath Charity. About 25 to 30 boys and girls are taught by the same Master, paid for by myself and friends aided by children's pence. There is also a mixed school kept by a person who professes dissent containing about 15 or 20 children.
15. Very seldom. Two girls now remain as teachers.
16. The Master, by my advice, opened an Evening school, but could not prevail upon more than two or three to attend, and gave it up.
17. There is no regular dissenting place of worship. Itinerant preachers, often come to the cottages, some of the cottagers meet for prayers etc. I cannot tell for certain the number of Dissenters. They may amount to about 50.
18. The Census was taken at a time when, as I believe, about 150 strangers were resident in the Parish being Rail-Road labourers with their families. They have now left the parish.
19. Our Agricultural labourers have been much demoralized by the Rail-road labourers who have so long resided with them, and five Public and Beer Houses in so small a Parish have their usual bad effects upon the morals of our young men.
20. It is. I am not aware of anything wanting, but a Book of Common Prayer for the Communion service.

3. He performs the whole duty himself
4. No
7. No
8. Two full services on Sundays with Sermons at each commencing respectively at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. Morning Prayer and Sermon on the greater Festivals, and Morning Prayer on Saints-days, also on Wednesdays and Fridays in Lent, when the children are catechised after the second Lesson, the questions being based on the Church Catechism.
10. There is Holy Communism on the first Sunday in each month and on the greater Festivals.
11. The average number of communicants is about 40 on the great Festivals and about 35 at other seasons. No list of communicants is kept as for the most part the same persons regularly communicate.
12. The average number of the congregation is between three and four hundred or about a fourth of the population. The attendance is not as good as it might be, owing to the insufficiency of accommodation.
14. Charity Sermons were preached last year for the Parochial Schools, for the Queen’s Letter, for the Diocese of Capetown, and Culham Training Schools.
15. There is a daily School for children between the ages of 5 and 12 years of age supported by the voluntary contributions of the Parishioners. The number of scholars is about 70.
16. Very few of the children attend the Sunday School after they have left Day School, but this is chiefly owing to the want of a larger schoolroom.
17. I have long been anxious to have an Evening School for adults and other young persons who have left the Day School, but have not yet ventured to attempt it for want of aid in carrying it out, having no one but myself and the Schoolmistress to depend upon.
18. There is one small Meeting House in the Parish, but I have no means of ascertaining the exact number of dissenters in the Parish, but they are not numerous.
19. The Census was accurately taken at the Parish Church, but I cannot say what mode was adopted by the Dissenters. Many who attend the Meeting House are not inhabitants of this Parish.
20. The chief wants of the Parish are the enlargement of the Parish Church, and better School accommodation.
21. The Parish Church is in good repair, and the Church Wardens are very regular in the discharge of their duties.
22. No alterations have been made in the Church since the last Visitation, excepting that an organ has been erected.
23. There is no other matter that occurs to me which it is expedient to bring under the notice of the Bishop.
7. No.
8. Services alternately morning and afternoon at Chalgrove and Berrick at 11 and 3 and evening service at Chalgrove at 6 on each Sunday, and sermons alternately morning and afternoon on Good Friday and Christmas Day. Sermons at every service. There is however no service at Chalgrove in the evening, when there is a funeral.
9. Occasional only, at a school which is temporarily held in a cottage of my own, preparatory to establishment in a new building when it will be put on a better footing.
10. On the first morning service of each month and at the great festivals.
11. I do not keep a list of communicants. There are about 6 at Berrick each time and now and then more: and seldom more than 10 at Chalgrove and frequently not more than 6. Now and then it happens that there are more at Berrick, when the table is prepared
12. Chalgrove: Morn: about 8o afternoon abt. 12o. Evening 30
Berrick: Morn about 40 afternoon abt. 8o not much difference in attendance since last visitation. Exclusive of school children. The children do not attend at night.
13. There should, no doubt, be more, but I believe there are as many in proportion to the population, as there are in neighbouring parishes. The farmers do not attend at Chalgrove as they should: and this of course acts upon the lower classes.
14. The relief of the families of the troops sent out to the East
15. A mixed daily school, held in a cottage of my own, in preparation for a more permanent one, which will shortly be erected. The number of names on the list amounts to 88. I have had great difficulties with regard to it, which lately have been somewhat mitigated and I hope will shortly be overcome. It is supported by subscription and school pence. They assemble at the house on Sunday before Church, excepting quite the smallest children; but there is but little done then: certainly not enough to call it a Sunday School. After leaving the daily attendance, the children do not come again. The payments of the children are irregular, and the attendance far from being what it ought to be. There is no school at Berrick.
16. There is a chapel, belonging I believe to some Baptists but used for some time past as a Wesleyan Chapel. I have no means of ascertaining the number of the dissenters
17. I believe that the number of Dissenters was very much exaggerated. I do not think the chapel could hold the number spoken of. This observation applies to Chalgrove only: there is no chapel at Berrick
18. At Chalgrove unpopularity arising out of an endeavour to repress gross misconduct on the part of one of the leading inhabitants, and the endeavour to prevent misappropriation of the church estate and want of pecuniary means to carry out measures I should desire. At Berrick nothing.
19. The Churches are not as I should like to see them: but they are not in very bad order. Some of the linings of the seats at Chalgrove have been destroyed by dry rot and require replacing by new timber, and there are some other details.

5. Mr. Fordyce is not licensed. The Revd Thomas Llewelyn Griffith is licensed as Curate of Chadlington and Shorthampton.
6. Arthur Thomas Dingwall Fordyce. He is in Deacon’s Orders. Mr. Griffith is in full Orders.
7. He officiates as curate in the hamlet of Finstock
8. Two services with a sermon on Sunday at Charlbury and one service with a sermon at Finstock. Prayers on Wednesday, Friday and Saints Day mornings at Charlbury. Two services with a sermon on Sunday at Chadlington. One service and sermon at Shorthampton
9. I catechise the children publicly in the Church during Lent.
10. It has been usual to do so only four times a year. Since I entered upon the incumbency I have been gradually endeavouring to administer it more frequently.
11. At Easter there were upwards of sixty, but this is rather beyond the average. I have not been in the habit of keeping such a list
12. I have not made any calculation, but the Church is fairly filled and the numbers appear to be on the increase.
13. The proportion is less than it would be for the large number of Dissenters. The most wealthy of the residents are nearly all Quakers
14. The Society for Propagating the Gospel in Foreign Parts and the collection upon the Day of Humiliation.
15. A daily school which is not much better than an infant school. The numbers vary but do not reach beyond fifty. A Sunday school which numbers from sixty to seventy. A night school for boys numbering about forty and one for girls of about half that number. These can scarcely be said to be in full operation during the summer. There is a British school supported by the dissenters.
16. The girls attend tolerably well but not the boys
N.B. There is a school at Chadlington supported by Lady Julia Langston.1 A day school and Sunday school and during the later winter months a night school for boys. At Chilson there is a day school and a Sunday school. At Finstock the same, and a small day school at Fawler chiefly kept up at my own expense
17. The night school has been in a fair degree successful.
18. There are several. A Quakers Meeting House,2 Wesleyans, Primitive Methodists and Baptists.

9. Publicly in the Church on Sundays during Lent, and occasionally a few short questions on visiting the schools

10. Twice at the period of each of the great Festivals and twice at Michaelmas

11. About twelve at the great Festivals, and about six or eight or more at Michaelmas and I have generally put down the number and occasionally the names.

12. About twenty in the Morning and from seventy to eighty in the afternoon. The congregation has been diminishing since two sermons were begun to be preached in Oct 1848 after the Bishops Charge.

13. I think there ought to be a larger attendance. The deficiency I attribute to Dissent and to the indifference to religion on the part of Masters and Parents.

9. I catechize them before afternoon service in the School room, adapting the questions to the services for the day, when feasible.
10. Four times in the year
11. About fifty at Xmas, rather more at Whitsuntide, rather less at other periods.
   I keep a list of communicants
12. I do not perceive much difference.
13. I think it bears a fair proportion.
14. For those objects on which I have received your Lordship's instruction
15. A day school for young girls and boys in Lady Jersey's¹ schoolroom, and a Sunday school at the same room
16. I retain a few girls and boys in the Sunday School, who have left the weekly school, which they do very early.
17. No
18. No dissenting place of worship, two families go to Bicester Chapels
19. No
20. I think the very early period at which children, especially boys, go to work is the greatest hindrance to ministerial efficiency.
21. In decent repair
   Yes.
22. No material alteration. We are now scraping and cleaning under the recommendation and advice of the Rural Dean.²

5. Yes. 2 October 1833
7. Officiates as chaplain of the Union workhouse in this parish
8. Daily service in the morning—2ce on Saints Days—more frequent services in Advent and Lent—3 full services on Sunday with sermons, at 10½, 2½ and 6.
9. Children privately catechised on Saturday and 9 on Sunday morning, publicly in the afternoon services
10. Every fourth Sunday: and on every proper preface day
About 100 to 140, average number 60 or 70
Yes.

Inclusive of 100 children in the morning about 500 to 600, afternoon without children about 200, evening without childr. 700 or 800
Certainly not decreasing

No. The deficiency owing to the immense numbers and wealth of the Dissenters

2 Church National schools. 3 schools for middle classes one of which is a K. Edward VI foundation. 2 British schools (Gi. and Boys), 1 Roman Catholic school, and about 5 or 6 dame schools

Yes on the whole: till they go out to service. Dissenters almost invariably take their servants from our schools.

I tried the experiment of evening schools 3 times a week from Advent to Easter the year before last. The success was not worth the labour, we never had more than 16 altogether, or 10 in actual attendance.

1. R. Cath. Chapel, 1 Baptist, 1 Wesleyan, 1 Antinomian, 1 Quakers meeting (the last two almost empty). Total of dissenters at least 2/5 of the population

The Baptist preacher told me that the return of the Wesleyans was exaggerated. Our own people were accurately counted by 7 or 8 persons specially ordered to do so. The attendance at church that day was unusually thin.

There is a positive premium on Dissent in the fact of the chief employers of the people being Dissenters and almost openly preferring those of their own denomination

3rd Application.

No answer having been returned to the former copies of these queries (sent you in July and August) you will greatly oblige by prompt attention to the above request: particularly as great inconveniences is caused, with respect to arrangements for the Visitation, by the answers not having been received. Mr. Barter’s returns for Sarsden and Cornwell have been received.

   1817

2. Yes
3. The Morning Service is performed by the Curate of Cornwell.
4. The Rectories of Sarsden and Cornwell.
   At the former he performs the Morning Service.
8. Sunday Morning Service at 10½
   Evening do at 3, with two sermons
   Evening Service with Lecture on Fridays during Lent.
9. The children are regularly catechised in two Sunday Schools
10. Eight times in the year
11. About 100 with no great variety. The Easter Communion generally the largest.
12. From 4 to 5 hundred. The congregation scarcely admitting of increase in the evening. The Morning Service here and generally in the neighbourhood is less fully attended.
13. The Population 650, but many parishioners of Sarsden are present in the evening
14. For the Training Schools. Widows and orphans of soldiers.
15. 1 Daily School for Boys, 80. 1 do. Girls 70. 1 Infants School. The two larger Schools open on Sundays. There is a small endowment for the Boys and Girls Schools, but the chief expense of both is defrayed by J. H. Langston Esq.¹
16. Yes
17. We have the Boys School opened as a Reading Room during the winter months. On 2 evenings of the week the Master gives gratuitous instruction in writing and arithmetic to adults who are members of the Room. Great success has attended this arrangement.
18. A very small Ranting or Primitive Methodist Chapel has been lately built. The number of Dissenters of all kinds may amount to 20.
19. The chapel mentioned above was not built when the census was taken.
   It was taken on a wet Sunday in November. My congregation was counted, exclusive of Children, 360.

Clanfield

1. John Paitt Penson
   Instituted 1836
2. He has been resident during the last year.
3. He performs the whole duty and has no assistant Curate.
4. He hold no other benefice or cure.
5. None.
8. Divine Service is performed every Sunday thro'out the year with a Sermon at each service. There are no weekly Services except in Lent. The time of divine service is at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. during six months, and at 6 p.m. during the summer.
9. I have no catechising except in the Sunday School, which I regularly attend
10. The Sacrament is administered 5 times at Easter, Whitsunday, on some intermediate Sunday in July or August, Michaelmas and Christmas
11. I do not keep a list of Communicants, but counting the numbers as they come up to the Table. I find seldom less than from 35 to 50 Communicants at all seasons.
12. The Congregations have decreased rather of late years, varying from 140 to 150.
13. I can hardly think it bears a fair proportion to the population. I attribute the decrease to the increase of dissent.
14. Charity Sermons have been preached for the Church Missionary and Pastoral Aid Societies.
15. One Sunday School, mixed, supported by myself and by subscriptions. One day School supported by a Lady in the parish, mixed. The scholars in the S. School amount to about 50. Those in the day School to about 30.
18. There are two places of worship for Dissenters, but I have never attempted to take a calculation of their probable numbers.
21. The Church is in very fair repair, and is duly provided with all things necessary for the decent performance of Divine Service. The Churchwardens regularly discharge their duties.
22. No alterations have been made.

Claydon cum Mollington

1. Thomas Henry Tait.
   7 December 185 [sic] 1
2. He has been resident here since the Parsonage House was completed 25 Mar. 1854.
3. He performs the whole duty
4. None
7. None
8. There are two services in Mollington every Sunday—Morning service at 11 o'clock and P.M. service at ½ past six and Morning service at 9 o'clock 1851.
and P.M. service at 3 past 2 on alternate Sundays. *Full service on Saints Days, during Lent Wednesday and Friday, and ev. day in Holy Week.

9. I catechise the Children in School. The Church Catechism is used and I also ask questions bearing upon it and the Prayer Book generally.

10. Every month at each Church and on the Festivals of our Lord except Ascension Day and on Whit. and Trin. Sunday.

11. Seventeen at the Great Festivals

Twelve.

Since I have administered the Holy Commn. monthly I have not had so many Communicants at a time, for formerly it was only administered quarterly. I have lately kept a list of Communicants but without the list I know all communicants.

12. I should say that the average afternoon numbers of Adults in Mollington Church is an 100. It has increased since I was inducted.

13. In Mollington it is a good proportion much better than Claydon. There is no landed proprietor resident nor has any one taken an interest in the place.

15. I have one mixed School to which Mr. Holbech² and myself subscribe. The Day School has only lately say within the last six months been in operation, all who attend the Day School attend also the Sunday School. The average attendance at the Day School is 46, and 65 at the Sunday School.

16. Yes, partially.

17. Not having been in residence during the winter I have not as yet started an Evening School but hope to do so.

18. A Ranters' Chapel.

On my first taking charge of the Parish I should say that I found at least 20 houses the inhabitants of which were in the habit of attending the Dissenters Meeting House.

19. There is no means of forming an opinion being in charge of Chinnor at that time.

20. I think the length of our Morning Service keeps many of the poorer classes from Church in the morning. Also may be mentioned the fact that the people were very much neglected here in former years there never having been a resident Minister until now. The Church being in a sad state with respect to accommodation for the poor is much against me. Also long established Dissent impedes me much.

21. The Church in bad repair, one aisle was pulled down in 1776 and never rebuilt and generally the School children are crowded into the Chancel. The Churchwardens perform their duties regularly.

22. None, save a new Altar Table and Commn. Plate.

23. The bad state of the repair of the Church.

* In Claydon there is one full service and Sermon every Sunday in the Morning and Afternoon alternately, also for Good Friday and Xmas Day and once every day in Holy Week.

8. Two full Services on Sundays. The Morning Prayer on Wednesdays and Fridays.
   The same on Saints' Days, commencing at 11.0 closing always with the blessing after the Ch. Militant Prayer, when there is no Post Communion.
9. The rule is to catechise during Lent after 2nd Lesson in Evening service, illustrating from Scripture the questions of the Catechism.
10. The 1st Sunday in every month and all the High Festivals of the year
11. A list is kept.
12. Taking into account both the Morn. and the Evening Services a 100, on the whole increasing but very fluctuating.
13. No, partly attributable to the fact stated under query 18 and 20
14. Two, one for the Surviving Sufferers from the War the other for the "Propagation of the Gospel " Queen's letter.
15. One Ch. of Eng. School offering a room for the instruction of Boys and Girls together, and one for infants in wh. the girls are taught needlework in the afternoon School. The above come to Sunday School, and about 12 beside making in all 50. The school is supported by the contributions of yearly subscribers and the payments of the children.
17. By evening Schools in the winter season, which have not the desired success for want partly of an efficient Master.
18. None, but there are two families resident in the place professed Dissenters, who including their Dependents amount to nearly 100.
19. I can give no answer to the enquiry as no returns were sent from this parish.
20. Partly the existence of dissent brought in about 10 years ago by the above mentioned families, one of them a Farmer who has with his Farm possession of a large House, wh. he lets to a Dissenter who keeps a large Commercial School.
21. Yes.
22. He does. We have never more than one.
23. I have merely to add that there has been much interruption in the weekly and Saints day services during the last 9 months from the broken state of my health.

COGS

2. He has not.
3. The duty is performed by a Curate.
4. The perpetual Curacy of Bredhurst, Rainham
5. He is not.
7. He is Vicar of Asthall and Master of the Witney Grammar School.
8. Alternate morning and evening services at each of which a sermon is preached. There is service also on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Ascension Day and Xmas Day, when a sermon is preached.
9. On the afternoon on Sundays in the usual manner.
10. Eight times a year.
11. A register is kept from which it appears that the number is generally about 20.
12. Not ascertained, much what it has been for some years.
13. In the afternoon it generally does, but not in the morning, having regard to that portion of the population not regular dissenters.
14. The widows and orphans of soldiers on the fast day, and the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.
15. Two endowed dames schools used as Sunday schools and partly supported by subscriptions. Children about 9 years attend Witney National school and Wesleyan daily school.
16. They are not retained.
17. No plan of instruction is adopted.
18. There is only a very small place of worship for dissenters. They attend in Witney and are numerous.
19. I cannot.
20. It is fairly so.
One is often incapacitated by illness and age, when well very attentive to duties and strongly attached to the Church.
21. No alterations have been made.
22. There is not.

2. He has regularly officiated throughout the year, with the exception of four months e.g. from March 25 to July 25, when he officiated at Grinton, Somerset, having exchanged duties with the Rev. J. Sedgwick Magd. Coll.
3. He performs the whole duty.
4. He holds no other benefices etc.
5. Two full services each Sunday, with sermons e.g. morning service at 11 a.m. and evening service at 3 p.m.
6. Usually in the Sunday School room previously to service. Sometimes, but rarely, after the second lesson in the evening service as the rubric directs. No particular method.
7. About six times per annum.
8. Average about 20 to 30. Number varies but little at any season. No written list kept, but the communicants are observed and known.
9. Morning: adults 50 to 100, children 60 to 80. Evening: adults 100 to 120, children 60 to 80. Number about stationery.
10. Proportion perhaps a fair one—from 25 to 45 per cent. Not below that of neighbouring parishes.
11. For the Soldiers Fund. For the S.P.G.F.P. I think also a previous one, for the National Society and the Society for the Repairs etc. of Churches.
12. One School (Sunday and day) for children, generally average attendance on Sunday 60-80, daily 40-60. Supported mainly by Lincoln College.
13. Moderately well.
17. An Evening school for both sexes, succeeded well in 1852 during the winter, average number 30 to 40, fallen 50 per cent since the novelty was over.

18. One conventicle for those generally who are not with us. The regularly initiated not numerous, perhaps not over 30, usual attendance not good, at periods of excitement otherwise.

18. One Wesleyan place of worship.
   Probably not 20 Dissenters, and some of these occasional attendants at church

19. I believe the returns of the attendance at Church were pretty accurate. They were taken by the Churchwardens under my own supervision. Of the others return I cannot speak.

20. The chief impediments to Church progress at Cowley seem to me to be.
   1. Want of heartiness in any religious purpose, in many cases amounting to positive infidelity. 2. Strongly rooted prejudices in the better class of Church people. 3. Unusual ignorance pervading all classes. 4. Pride and dress in the upper class. 5. Lawlessness and selfwilled idleness in the lower. 6. Selfishness in all and niggardliness especially in the upper.
   7. Loose habits produced by the university cricket grounds etc. 8. Immorality connected with the university. 9. Immorality arising from want of proper cottage-room. 11. Low loitering sports arising from ignorance.
   A rural police is greatly needed.

2. Came into residence at Michaelmas last and has resided there ever since.
3. Performs the whole duty at the Parish Church, and in Deddington. Mr. Risley kindly does duty in the church at Clifton.
4. No
8. Full services twice every Sunday. Morning at ½ past 10. Afternoon at ½ past 2. Prayers on Saints days, and on Wednesdays and Fridays during Lent. 2 sermons each Sunday.
9. At the schools. I am very desirous to restore Catechising in the Church on Sundays.
10. On the first Sunday of every month, and on the great Festivals.
11. About 60. Since the other churches have been opened the number is reduced and I consider it very small at present. I do.
12. It is not decreasing.
13. I think it does, indeed I do not find that the additional churches have thinned the congregation.
14. For Her Majesty’s Letter.
15. National Schools. About 90 scholars on the Books of each School. Infants attend the Girls School and are instructed in a class room.

2The Rev. W. C. Risley, a former incumbent.
3The chapel of St. James, Clifton, was built largely at Mr. Risley’s expense and was consecrated in 1853. St. John the Evangelist at Hempton was opened in 1851. It was built by the Rev. Dr. Wilson, of Over Worton, and designed by his son, the vicar of Banbury.
16. The Sunday Schools do not retain the young people, except now and then as teachers. The Education in the daily school has been so good, that the first class of Boys know more than the old Sunday School Teachers; and are, as monitors, much better catechists than those who come on Sundays to instruct them.

17. As soon as the schools are finished and there is a proper fencing, at present there is none, between the Boys and Girls schools, I intend to give Lectures and establish a Lending Library.

18. Three. I cannot tell their number. Those who call themselves Church People are very lax in their Church Principles. There is a very thin partition between them and formal dissent, conforming schismatics is the best term which applies to them.

19. I was not here at the time and must refer to Dr. Wilson.

20. The spirit of dissension which has long existed in this Parish. I believe patience the best human remedy, except Prayer and my Bishop’s advice.

21. Yes. Both the Churchwardens are exemplary in their conduct.

22. Some alterations were made in the chancel during my absence, without my knowledge. I know not on what authority, but am told that they were superintended by Mr. Risley.

23. His Lordship’s kind cooperation with me in maintaining efficient schools.

Not to the extent I could wish, from the custom of their going very early into the families of the farmers of the place and neighbourhood as servants.

We have had for the last three years from Michaelmas to Easter a night school for boys and young men with very fair success.

There is a Roman Catholic Chapel and a Baptist Meeting House, and a small meeting House for Primitive Methodists. I fear I cannot state the numbers of the Dissenters, as many persons go occasionally to church and to the meeting house and parents of families in some cases are dissenters.

I remember being strongly impressed with the palpable exaggeration on the part of Romanists and Baptists, but I do not know in what they made their returns.

My greatest present difficulty results from the state of my boys' school, from the unsatisfactory character of the master, whom I cannot dismiss.

10. Four times a year, and at the great Festivals.
11. About thirty at the great Festivals, and much the same number at other seasons.
12. From sixty to eighty, the congregation does not decrease. I should say increased.
13. Yes.
14. I have to observe on this question that I have repeatedly heretofore preached Charity Sermons. I have had no collection, the Parishioners consisting entirely of agricultural labourers, who are too poor to contribute. A sermon was preached in May in aid of the Widows and Orphans of the soldiers gone to the East, a small collection made.
15. There is one daily school for children, as well as Sunday school. Supported by voluntary subscriptions of self and others. The number of scholars averaging thirty five.
16. The Sunday school scholars are the same as the daily, and they attend regularly every Sunday.

10. Four times a year

11. Some times not more than three Communicants, and sometimes as many as six or seven.

12. Sometimes not more than four or five, sometimes more than twenty, but then not all parishioners

13. No church in the Diocese so well attended in proportion to the population.

14. One Charity Sermon only within the last year, for the Soldiers' Wives

15. No school of any kind, nor any children regularly resident all the year

18. No dissenting place of worship in my Parish.

   There is one family of Dissenters only.

19. At the time the last census was taken no Dissenter resident in my Parish. The family of Dissenters now in it represented themselves (I believe) as Church People, till they had secured the farm.

20. The population of my Parish (the Dissenting family excepted) are church People, favourable to the Establishment.

1Mr. Bricknell was frequently at issue with his Bishop, and was not averse from publishing the correspondence. In 1857 he was reading all the services from the pulpit. It appears that the desk was inconveniently damp, and his voice failed to carry effectively from the Communion table. (Diocese Book, f. 216). To remedy this defect he moved the holy table into the body of the church, until ordered to restore it by the Bishop and the Chancellor of the diocese. (F. ²The church was reopened on December 1 1854. J. S. Burn, A History of Henley-on-Thames (1861), p. 117.
There has been a great deficiency of attendance among the Poor, partly for want of accommodation in the Church, and partly from the low tone of their moral condition.

Only for the wives and families of the soldiers and sailors this year owing to sundry local causes.

There is a National Boys, Girls and Infants School, supported by voluntary subscriptions and collections in Church. In the boys' school the average number of scholars is 120; in the girls 90; in the infants 120.

After many attempts I have utterly failed in being able to gather Sunday scholars in the boys' school; in the girls' there are a considerable number who attend on the Sunday, being at work during the week.

There has been an Adult evening school during the winter months, but it has not been largely attended.

There is a small Wesleyan Meeting House and Quakers' Meeting in the parish; in the suburbs of Henley, but in Greys parish, a large and well-attended Independent Meeting House.

The lamentable condition of the Poor in their dwellings and manner of life is the chief hindrance and source of anxiety in Henley

9. In the Church before Service, and Teachers catechize them regularly according to the form in book of Common Prayer
10. Three times in the year
11. Average No. about 15. No list is kept
12. Cannot tell average of congregation, but it is decreasing.
13. Not a fair proportion, and the decrease is owing to sundry dissenting houses of worship and some lately erected.
14. None preached
15. A Sunday School supported by New College, and subscription.
17. None, as before.
18. Two chapels of Dissenters and a meeting of Ranters (commonly so called), a nuisance, and disturbance to the Parish.
19. Unable to give any correct or dependable information
20. Nothing specially
21. Church is in good repair, and the chancel has very lately been inspected by a Builder, and report sent into Patrons at New College, and is in very decent repair for an old structure. Require another Warden, there being only one, which will form subject of a letter for the notice of the Diocesan.
22. No alteration made since last visitation.
23. Nothing particular to bring to the notice of the Diocesan, except observations on No. 21 as stated above.

11. About 30 at the great Festivals, 25 at other times. No list of Coms. kept but all are known and absence is noted.
12. About 45 morning, 50 afternoon. It has somewhat decreased of late.
13. It is not so great I think as it ought to be in so small a Parish. I attribute the deficiency to too much truth from the Pulpit and too little in the Cottages.
14. Sermons have been preached for the Soldiers wives and the Bible Society.
15. One mixed day school, supported by School Pence and contributions.
   The average number of scholars during the past year has been 20.
16. In some cases but not in others.
17. Until the last winter I had Evening Classes. The success were greater than cd. have been expected. Since discontinuing the plan, wh. I was sorry to be obliged to do my influence over the young has greatly diminished.

18. None. I have only 3 avowed Dissenters now. There were many more when I first entered the Parish.

20. I think the greatest impediment is the want of close, individual, affectionate, missionary contact with the people, whole as well as sick.

21. My Church is in good repair, duly provided with all necessary things. I have been without Church Wardens for some time past, though Wm. Hervey Esq. has acted as such.

12. Not ascertained. The Church generally very fairly filled, especially in Vacation time. The Morning congregation larger than the afternoon. Congregation has increased last yr. or two.

13. Bears a very fair proportion to the church-going part of the population. But great numbers go nowhere and many are hindered (or think themselves hindered) from going in term time, being College servants.¹

¹This had been endorsed by the Bishop in January, 1854. "Little shopkeepers very irreligious, very few poor and those demoralised by the numbers of gifts and charities from the colleges. Many religious persons, not the poor here. Lodging keepers. College servants, a most unsatisfactory lot of men, imitate those above them. Extravagant eaters and drinkers. Live in better houses and take lodgers. Some few really religious. The recognised plunder destroys them and absence from church. Servants of certain colleges better, the upper the best. Care taken of them and better examples the cause." Diocese Book, f. 357b.
15. One small mixed school, supported (chiefly) by subscription. But from the circumstances of the Parish there is not, and cannot be a large school for the poor.

18. None. There are only about 14 Dissenters in the Parish. But there is a very great number of persons who go no where. I have been astonished at the people’s practical disbelief in the ordinances of the Church.

20. As impeding my ministry in my own parish, I have found a sectarian spirit arising greatly from the practice of frequenting other Churches, in some cases even Dissenting Meeting Houses. Great difficulty arises from the manner in which College habits and arrangements interfere in many ways with servants and townspeople. Much religious indifference, and disregard of the Lord's Day arises from this cause. I shd. like to see some decided plan adopted by Colleges for maintaining a better religious observance of Sunday by servants and dependants.

To answer generally, I am convinced from my own experience that extemporaneous preaching is much needed, instead of the stiffness and formality of most sermons at present. Also, some special instruction and preparation for visiting the Sick, and such like offices.

All ministry in towns is impeded by the visible disunion amg. the Clergy, and difference of teaching and practice in different Churches. This can be best remedied by clergy of different sentiments avoiding the excitement of controversial topics, and adopting (comparative) rubrical uniformity in the Public Services of the Church, such as Baptism etc. One great evil, is that the Pastoral and spiritual relation is so much lost sight of: this might be restored by adopting what is the strength of some sects, the system of giving large numbers of the flock something to do, as members of the whole. I wd. suggest when practicable, guilds or brotherhood-associations for pious purposes, or even for the secular objects of the Church. Those who are now isolated or even opposed, might be bound into one body. Great good might come from classes of religious instruction: as it is, the people too often are, and feel that they are, quite isolated from the clergy.

21. Yes.

22. None, except 2 new painted windows, and a trifling rearrangement of the choristers' seats.²

23. I wd. mention my earnest desire (from experience) for some relief from the Burial Service grievance.³ Also, the extreme importance of promoting union in the Church by blending the Ch. Missionary Society with the S.P.G. into one Society. And, some plan for the unreserved surrender of Church-Rates: also some effectual means of interesting lay-people as members of the Church in the restoration of convocation.

²By 1858 the parishioners were complaining of innovations—"lighted candles, strange vestments, piscina and super-altar, extreme decoration of chancel." ibidem.

³A remonstrance signed by 3814 clergymen had been addressed to the bench of bishops in 1852 alleging that "the almost indiscriminate use of the Order for the Burial of the Dead . . . imposes a heavy burden upon the consciences of clergymen and is the occasion of grievous scandal to many Christian people." cf. Lord Ebury's speech in the House of Lords on June 1 1863. Hansard's, Parliamentary Debates, 3rd series CLXXI, col. 154.

8. Two full Services every Sundy: the Morning Service at 10.15 A.M., the Afternoon Service at 2.30 P.M. in winter, at 2.45 P.M. in summer. A Sermon at each Service, except on Sacrament Sundays, when the Morning Sermon is omitted. Two Services on Good Friday and Christmas Day, with sermon in the Afternoon. Prayers on Fridays in Lent, Easter Monday and Ascension Day.
9. Publicly in Lent: at other times in the School. The publick catechising consists merely in hearing them say the Catechism: in the School it is such as a Clergyman ordinarily uses among his school children.
10. 11 or 12 times in the year
11. Average No. at the great festivals = 90 at other seasons = 70
12. Having never actually numbered the persons at Church (except on the occasion of the Census when the attendance happened to be very considerably less than usual), I can but form a rough estimate. The Afternoon congregation may average 400 or 450, the Forenoon 300, the children of the School included. Not decreasing.
13. I think it does.
14. In 1853 sermons were preached (1) for the National School Society, under the Queen’s Letter. (2) For Hook Norton Church Sunday Schools. (3) For the Church Missionary Society. (4) For Hook Norton Daily School. (5) For the new Training School at Culham. (6) For Hook Norton Benevolent Socy. and the Night School (proceeds divided).
15. In connection with the Church a Daily School (mixed), containing at present 80 scholars: and a Sunday School, containing at present 130 scholars: both supported by voluntary contributions, except that the children attending the Daily School pay 1/3 per week each. There is a “British” School supported by the Dissenters and Sunday Schools in connection with 2 of the Meeting Houses and two or three small private Schools.
16. To a considerable extent, I am.
17. I have, in winter, an Evening Weekday School for the older Scholars in the Sunday School who have ceased to attend the ordinary Daily School.
18. 1 Wesleyan. 2 Baptist. 3 Quakers. 4 Primitive Methodists. It is difficult to discriminate between those who are decidedly Dissenters and those who attend occasionally at Church and occasionally a Dissenting Meeting House. Perhaps it may be near the truth to state the numbers of Dissenters at one third of the population,—or about 500.
19. I have no means of judging of the correctness of the Dissenters’ returns at the Census. But my own Congregation on the Sunday of enumeration was decidedly very much under an average one. The Churchwardens stood at the doors and counted the people as they went out. The number at Church therefore was accurately returned.

8. Service on Sundays at 11 and 3 with a sermon each time. Also on Saints Days, Ember Days and Rogation Days. Every Wednesday and Friday in the morning at ½ past 10 a.m., daily during Lent.
9. The children are catechised every Wednesday in Lent after Morning Prayer. They are catechised in the Bible and Liturgy as well as in the Catechism.
10. The first Sunday in every month and on all the Festivals for wh. there is a preface in the Comm. Service and on St. Paul’s Day.
11. I keep a list of Communicants. The average number on the first Sunday in the month is about 60. On the great Festivals between 70 and 80.
12. Increasing. There is frequently want of room. A larger number of strangers come than was usual formerly.
13. A very fair proportion.
15. One boys’ and one girls’ school. I have brought the children of a charity from a small room where they were miserably instructed to the parish school, to be taught with the other children. The result has been most satisfactory. I have established an infant school this year under a mistress whom I had trained at Westminster. It is very well attended and goes on most prosperously.
16. Several of the scholars continue to attend the Sunday school.
17. We have an adult evening school twice in the week, where several of them attend. This school is a branch of a Reading room, which I have established. Numbers are few. Others make arrangements with the Master.
18. There are no dissenting places of worship in the parish. There are twelve families who may be said to be dissenters, but the greater number come to church occasionally.
19. This having been taken before I came to the parish, I am unable to afford any information.
20. I cannot mention any special external impediments to my ministry. Whatever want of success there may be, I think I must lay to the charge of my own shortcomings and I believe the condition of the church around me is, generally speaking, cheering.
21. In very good repair. The Churchwardens are very satisfactory.
22. None.
23. His Lordship will I know be glad to know that all ranks and classes in my parish have joined to form a reading room, as a place of resort for the working men in the evening. 16. On the whole tolerably well.
17. There are about 40 attend the evening school commenced by Mrs. Buckland some years since and which is under her superintendence.
18. There is a little house called a Chapel at which the Wesleyans assemble and also a room in another poor man's cottage at which there meet a certain number of other Dissenters. I fancy they are Baptists. Howsoever they are not very many. The Wesleyans I think I may say are by no means ill affected to the church generally speaking.

   Yes
12. No decrease, rather the reverse.
13. Quite a fair proportion to the population
14. The different objects of public charities, the Parish having no resident gentry. Parochial charities are met by private subscription.
15. An excellent day and Sunday School, supported chiefly by voluntary contributions, the numbers on the books are above 40.
16. Several attend on Sunday who have left the School.
17. We had a very good Adult School one winter, but our population is very poor and the payments were not regular, and the expense was greater than we could meet, so it was obliged to be given up
18. We have no Chapel and no declared dissenters. A few attend a neighbouring Chapel occasionally.
19. I am sorry being now on a short visit from home, I cannot be very minute in my answers about numbers, but I was perfectly satisfied with the correctness of the assessment when I had seen it.
20. I can suggest nothing, being satisfied with the welfare of the Church and Parish.
21. Yes in good repair and order, a Communion cloth and Pulpit cushion is all that requires to be renewed and we have a subscription now for that purpose.
22. None at present except altering a window, enlarging it for the use of the Singers who wanted more light.
23. Nothing, the Parish is orderly, there is no dissenting Chapel or public House, and the School is well attended.

11. About 27 at the Great Festivals; and 20 at other times—I keep a list.

12. In Summer about 70, besides the school children.

13. It bears a fair proportion. Some of the people from the adjoining parish (where there is but one service) attend my Church.

14. For the Prop: of the Gospel in Foreign parts.

15. One Sunday School for Boys and Girls, with 16 boys and 19 girls, supported by the parish. A school for young children from 2 to 7 or 8 years old; maintained by subscription and the children's pence. 19 scholars. The Evening school, twice a week for young women and the bigger girls, maintained and attended to by myself and daughters, no payments required:—16 scholars.

16. The children of the daily school being so young, they attend the Sunday School after they leave. At about 7 years old, they are taken from the daily to learn the lace-making business.¹

17. As before mentioned, I have formed an Evening School (5 o'Clock) for the lace making young women and girls. We are greatly pleased with the success attending it. They are interested for 2 hours, on two days in the week.

18. No place of Dissenting worship. Two families of Dissenters: viz. 4 individuals with 4 children (Baptists).

19. The Census is correctly given, as the Parish then was circumstanced. A return was made by myself and it appears to have been followed.

20. I have nothing in particular to mention.

21. It is in good repair, with the exception of one window, the stone work of which is falling out. We are provided with all necessaries. The Churchwarden does his duty. (There is but one Ch. warden).

22. No alterations have been made.

23. None.

   1 Daily Infant, with 12 scholars, paid for by parents.
   1 Sunday School, 60 scholars, all in connexion with the Church.

16. The girls till they go out to service; a few of the boys for a year or two.

17. Evening school for 20 young men during 4 months in the winter, it succeeded very well.

18. 1 Wesleyan Meeting House, 20 professed Wesleyans.

19. The numbers in the census do not fairly represent the numbers of the Church and Dissenters as many who are not dissenters occasionally attend the Meeting House in the evening. I am of opinion that especial pains were taken that there should be a full attendance at the Meeting House on the day when the Census was taken.

20. The early age at which children are removed from the daily schools; this is an evil increasing yearly.

9. My design was to have done so through Lent during afternoon service, but was unable so to do from several reasons, which I should be happy to explain to your Lordship.

11. Usually about 16, or perhaps 18 or 20 on the great festivals. Do not keep a list as the number is so small that I can remember them.

12. Do not know the average number, but am happy to say it increases. The Church is generally of an afternoon quite full and a good congregation in the morning.

13. It does not bear a fair proportion, owing to several reasons. 1st The existence of O'Connor cottages and forming another parish almost, the generality of the occupiers being bigoted dissenters. 2nd Want of due and fit accommodation in the Parish Church.

14. For Society for Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts. For Culham training School.

15. Only one (Sunday School) maintained by voluntary contributions, containing about 60 scholars.

18. One large building on O'Connor Estate, and probably the number of dissenters is upwards of two hundred.

19. No

20. The great extent of dissent, with which it is difficult to contend, the whole of it almost lying in O'Connor Estate, and being of a bigoted nature.

21. The Church is in bad repair, and I cannot procure even the necessaries for due performance of Divine Service, for reasons I should be pleased to give your Lordship.

22. The Church owing to several complaints in different quarters but principally through Revd. Dacres Adams, Rural Dean, is now being partially repaired.

23. The great difficulty in procuring a Church Rate for the ever necessary repairs of the body of Church, the want of which impedes my great desire to raise some fund for the general improvement and restoration of it.

10. Monthly and on the great Feasts and following Sundays

11. I should say about 50 or taking the two Communions on the Feast-day and following Sunday together about 80, on other occasions about 30. I do keep a list of Communicants.

12. I should think (exclusive of the children) about 90 and I do not think there is much change.

13. The entire population of my Parish is, I believe, 360, of which about 120 are children.

14. I have preached no Charity Sermons but one offertory has been appropriated to Culham Training School

15. There is a Daily school and a Sunday school for both boys and girls. Day school numbers 60. Sunday school 36 boys and 26 girls. Both schools are supported exclusively by the Rector and his family assisted by a legacy of 16lion a year by the late Rector. I have night classes during the winter for young men and boys.

16. Yes till Confirmation. They leave the day school very early, say at 8 or 9 years old for the fields or Lace Pillows, but we get the girls for an hour a day up to their Confirmation, and all the biggest boys (who alone are received) come of their own accord to the night schools.

17. Answered in the two preceding questions. I hope much good from the night schools.

18. None. I have two Dissenters.

19. No, I can give no information.

20. It is.

The last question involves more than I can answer.

22. The only alteration in the place has been the insertion of a new window, but the whole church has been entirely re-fitted etc. etc. and the Rector is responsible for what has been done.

23. Nothing, unless perhaps I may mention the continual scandal of having for Church Warden a man who for the last 25 years of his life at least has never been as a worshipper into a place of worship of any denomination.

2For the lace industry in Buckinghamshire, cf. B. Palliser, History of Lace (revised ed. 1902), pp. 378 ff. The Factory Acts were only gradually extended to the lace-works. As late as 1862 it was still customary to begin work at five or six years old. B. L. Hutchins and A. Harrison, A History of Factory Legislation (1911), pp. 141 ff.

   A sermon preached in the morning only.

9. I have just begun the plan (hitherto new here) of catechising a few after evening service, hearing and explaining the Church Catechism in the Church.

10. Four time in the year

11. About 14 each time

12. About 45, reckoning the attendance at both services, and exclusive of the Sunday School Much as usual.

13. Not a satisfactory proportion. I attribute much of this to the distance of some of the cottages from the Church

15. A mixed daily School free for children as soon as old enough to attend, supported by Endowment of late Bishop Barrington. 20 attend at present. The Sunday School is much the same.

16. Occasionally two or three girls only.

Two Services Morning at eleven. Evening at 1/2 before 3 or 1/2 after according to season. Sermon at each Children catechised regularly at School.

Four times a year

Number varies from 32 to 50. Largest number usually Easter. Every communicant known.

About 250. Congregations smaller with two Services, but some attend once in the day.

Church Missionary and School.
15. One daily and Sunday School for such children as a Mistress can manage. Supported by subscriptions, collections and children’s pence. Scholars average 65.

17. No

18. One Independent Chapel not much frequented.

19. No knowledge of the information given, but not more than six families who would call themselves Dissenters do not have their children baptised though many of the poor attend occasionally the Chapel and especially in the evening when no service at the Church.

20. The smallness of my income which prevents the support of schools to the extent wished and the carrying out of other objects, which increase a Minister’s influence and tend to strengthen the Church.

21. Yes

22. No alterations.

2. He has.

3. He performs the whole duty with occasional, but rare, assistance from his son.

4. He holds no other Benefice and serves no other cure

5. There is no Curate

8. Morning Prayer with a Sermon every Sunday, Christmas day and Good Friday and Morning Prayer every Ash Wednesday and Holy Thursday. Evening prayer on every Sunday with a Sermon 10 months in the year.

9. The six Sundays in Lent in the Church at evening prayer and frequently in the School. The Church Catechism and questions out of it.

10. The 1st Sunday in the month and Christmas day.

11. 38 on the great Festivals, 18 at other times. I keep a List of Communicants. In the course of last year there were 74 communicants

12. 120. The numbers are much the same as for many years

13. I think not, the population is 350. The Church is distant from the mass of the Population

14. The Queen’s Letter, and for wives of soldiers

15. One daily school for Children of 5 years and upwards. The same on Sunday, supported by children’s pence, Mr. Harcourt making up all deficiencies. 102 scholars, 25 of them from Baldon.

15. 1 School for children (mixed) 64
    1 School for infants 34
    1 Sunday School 73
    1 Adult School in the winter 12
    The first two are supported by Subscription and the Children’s pence, the incumbent paying the deficiency
16. Till about the age of 16, when they receive a Bible as a present. There are frequent exceptions, owing to the young people going to service.
17. I have tried an Adult School in the winter for 18 years, and am satisfied that benefit has been derived from it in the case of many young people. The interest in it, however, has fallen off lately, and it is difficult to induce young men to attend it. I do not mean to give it up.
18. There are not above 4 Dissenters who never come to Church. But many regular attendants at Church go in the evening to a Wesleyan Meeting House.
19. The statement sent from the Parish of the persons attending Church on the day specified was correct, the numbers being accurately counted by myself; but I cannot give any information as to the general Census. The numbers attending at the Meeting House on the same evening were far from being all members of the Wesleyan Body.

3. Yes
4. None
5. No Curate
6. Two Services every Sunday, one at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, another at 3 o'clock in the afternoon; a sermon preached at each. Two like Services on Good Friday and Christmas Day and Prayers on Ash Wednesday.
7. For half an hour before the Service in the morning and afternoon on Sunday.
8. Six times in the year
9. The number of communicants at Easter about 30, at other times about 25 on an average.
10. On March 30 1851. The congregation in the morning 45 grown persons and 20 school children. The congregation in the afternoon 44 grown persons and 16 school children.
11. This I consider to be rather below the average. The whole population of Newton Purcell with Shelswell amounts to 160 persons
12. For the Queen's Letter and soldiers wives etc.
13. A Sunday School attended by about 30 children, the expenses borne by the Rector. A daily Dame School for about 20 children, boys and girls; supported by the Lord of the Manor and the Rector. An evening writing school in the winter for about six boys supported by the Rector.
14. Yes most of them
15. I have a small evening school for boys in the winter
16. None. Only one professed Dissenter in the Parish, who attends Church every Sunday morning.
17. Yes in good repair; and the Churchwardens are attentive to their duties.

5. Morning and Afternoon full service at the mother Church and Evening full service once a fortnight at the chapel. 11 o'clock, 3 o'clock and 6 o'clock, besides occasional services 139 sermons.
6. Before the morning service on Sundays, at the schoolroom
7. Four times in the year
8. No account is kept. I do not know how this could be done.
9. The labouring congregation is less than it was, which I attribute to my being less able of late to be among them through my own illness and family afflictions.
14. The parish is very poor and I seldom preach charity sermons except such as I am required by the ordinary.

15. Only my own, which is a mixed school for boys and girls, and my Sunday school. They depend on me with the help of a very small subscription. The average attendance is between 40 and 50.

16. Mostly, for about 2 years or so. The upper classes of boys and girls on Sundays have usually most of them left the weekly school.

17. I have tried Evening schools without success

18. None. There are a few dissenters and many of no serious impressions of any kind.

19. I cannot at present and probably could not if I had more time.

8. Morning and Evening Services on Sunday.
   Morning Service begins at 11
   Evening do. 2.
   A Sermon in the afternoon

10. Three times in the year.

11. The average number is lamentably small. No more than 7 or 8. I keep no list. I do not need one.

12. I do not keep any account of the numbers. It is much as usual. The population is less than formerly.

13. The number might be larger. There are few houses from which some do not attend.

15. There is no daily School. The children as far as they attend any resort to the neighbouring school at Islip. We have a Sunday School supported by the Rector.

16. As soon as they are of sufficient age and strength children generally go to service.

17. No

18. There is no place of dissenting worship. Very few dissenters. In fact some attend Church from every house.

8. Two Services on Sunday, One Sermon, alternately morning and afternoon. Hours, eleven and three (in summer), 1⁄2 past two in winter. Morning prayers on Saints Days. and on Wednesdays and Fridays during Lent, and daily during Holy Week. Two Services and one Sermon on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Ascension Day and Xmas Day.

9. The children are catechized during the week and on Sundays.
10. Twelve times a year.
11. At the great festivals about 30
   At other seasons about 20 12. About 70. It does not increase.
13. I think not, partly owing to the event of accommodation, partly to dissent, and carelessness about religious duties.
15. There is one Dame's School, containing about 40 children, supported by Col. Bowles,1 the Lord of the Manor. One private School containing 3 or 4 children and a Sunday School, containing about 30.
16. Some of the children attend the Sunday School, after they have left the Day School.
17. There is an evening School for Adults in the winter, which has not succeeded so well as could be wished.
18. There is no Dissenting place of worship. The number of Dissenters probably about 30.
19. I cannot give any information on this point.
20. I consider Dissent to be the great impediment to the Church in this Parish. I can suggest no remedy but time and patience and a more faithful discharge of my ministerial duties.
21. The Church is in tolerably good repair and duly provided etc. etc. The Churchwardens discharge their duties.
22. Some new seats have been put in the Church, and a screen to the belfry and the Font has been moved, with the consent of the Bishop.2
23. No

Oddington, Oxon

OVER WORTON.

1. The name of the incumbent is William Lancaster. His address is, at the Rectory House of this parish. He was instituted July 14, 1849, and inducted July 28, 1849
2. He has during the last year been resident during the time prescribed by law.
3. He has an assistant curate.
4. He does not hold any other benefice, nor serve any other cure.
5. The curate is not licensed to Over Worton; he is I believe, licensed to Nether Worton: these two parishes form, with respect to public worship, one congregation.
6. His name is Valentine Blake. He is a priest.
7. He is curate of Nether Worton, and performs his duties as such. He also officiates, once at least on Sundays at Hempdon, in a chapel which is not yet consecrated.
8. The duty performed in my church is, evening prayer and sermon every Sunday; except about 7 Sundays in the year; on which days, the communion being administered at Over Worton, there is a full morning service. The communion is administered alternately in the two Churches. On other than the comm. days at Over Worton: the morning service for the two parishes is at Lower Worton.

9. The catechetical instruction is given in catechetical lectures; one of which is given as the sermon every second Sunday in the month: in the School at Mr. Worton, which is for the two parishes, the children are all catechized, and I think this is done every day.

10. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is administered on the three great festivals, and also on the first Sunday of every month: but the administration is alternate between the two parishes of Over Worton and Lower Worton.

11. The number of communicants, as I hope and believe, among my own parishioners of Over Worton, embraces all of years of discretion: that is, who have been confirmed. I think there is, in the number of communicants, no difference between the great festivals and other seasons. I do not keep a list of communicants

12. The congregation of Over Worton embraces, as I firmly believe, all the parishioners who are not kept away by necessity: in this case, there cannot be an increase, and I hope there will not be a decrease.

13. The answer to this question is, as it seems to me, involved in the last answer.

14. May 1, 1853 and July 2, 1854, there were charity sermons pursuant to the Queen's letters: the former for the National Society and the latter for the Soc'y for the Propagn. of the Gospel.

15. There are no schools in my parish: the National School (which is for the benefit of the two parishes) is at Nether Worton: this is the only school provided for the two parishes.

16. The school being at Lower Worton; the Minister of that parish will be better qualified than I am, to report upon the case.

17. Neither Adult nor Evening Schools have been adopted in Over Worton.

18. There are no Dissenting places of worship, nor any Dissenters whatsoever in my parish.

19. I cannot give any information as to the correctness of the Census.

20. It is an impediment to the ministry of the church, I would mention, the want of a right method of catechizing: which is either not done at all, as is mostly the case; or else done in a way, which is unedifying and repulsive to the congregation. Nothing, in my opinion, will remedy this overwhelming evil, but the provision of one simple method, to be uniformly observed everywhere, and not liable to variations from individual judgement

21. My church is in good repair, and duly provided with all things necessary. I have no complaint to make against my churchwarden: there is but one churchwarden in this parish.

22. No alterations have been made in the church or chancel, internally: as to the fabric, externally, the enlargement was begun before the last visitation, and the work is not yet completed.

23. The clergy are I think affected by a great inconvenience in their endeavour, to prepare their catechumens for being confirmed: but I am at a loss to suggest a remedy.

8. There are two Services on Sunday with a Sermon in the morning, Morning Service at 11, Evening at three o'clock.

9. They are catechised when preparing for confirmation. I use the Church Catechism.

10. On the last Sunday in every month, with Easter and Whitsuntide.

11. Between 50 and 60 at Christmas and Easter: about 30 at other seasons.

12. I think about 150

13. I think so. Some of the inhabitants have homes near Oxford, to which they go on the Sunday

15. There are no schools in the parish. A Girls' school belonging to various parishes attends the morning service at All Saints' Church.

I cannot.
The want of free sittings in the church; for 1330 persons, who have no appropriated seats, there are available only 150 for sittings.
The church is in decent repair. They do.
The chancel arch has been enlarged, and new seats have been placed in the chancel with your Lordship's consent.
I am anxious for a rearrangement of the seats in my church, with a view to having an evening service on Sundays in addition to the present services, and should wish the sittings throughout the church to be unappropriated for the afternoon and evening services.

In 1855 the Bishop sought to win over the churchwardens to a plan for setting a part of the south aisle for the poor. Diocese Book, f. 355b.

ST. MARTINS (Carfax) OXFORD

2. Yes.

3. He has no Assistant Curate. There are four lecturers attached to the church. He is one of them.

4. He serves the adjoining parish of St. Peter le Bailey as Curate.

8. Two full Services are given on Sundays the hours of Divine Service are Eleven and half past six. A Sermon at each Service. There are also Weekday Lectures and Sermons during the season of Advent: prayers at other seasons, Ash Wednesday, Holy Thursday: but from the circumstances of the parish a congregation cannot be gotten except in the evening of a week day.

9. I catechise the children in School. There is no regular day School, but I exercise such control as I am able. Nixon’s school for freemen’s sons¹ and the Blue Coat School².

10. Once a month and on the greater Festivals.

12. The Church is well attended. As far as numbers are concerned I have nothing to complain of. Average congregation is (I should say) about 400 morning and 650 evening.

13. Yes.

15. The number of poor being very small, I have made arrangements by which those who cannot gain admission into either of the endowed schools shall have the advantage of St. Peter le Bailey school.

16. Rarely if ever. The exceptions very few indeed.

17. Not applicable to this Parish.

18. None. Very small, under 10 I shd. say.
19. I was not Incumbent when the census was made.
20. No. I have much cause for thankfulness. My discouragements are few and are traceable solely to my own shortcomings and imperfect discharge of my duty
21. Yes
22. No alterations have been made. The church is now in a much more cleanly state than it was formerly.

VISITATION 1854

17. We have tried an adult school for those who are not above the class of ragged-school-pupils but have dropt it because for want of expansion it did not do what was required.

18. An Independent Meeting. I should not like to hazard a guess at the number of Dissenters

ST. MARY THE VIRGIN
OXFORD

1. Charles Marriott.¹ Oriel College. Oxford

2. Yes

3. A Curate and an assistant.

4. No

5. Both curate and assistant are licensed

6. Edward Owen Deacon Curate 1852
Edgar Dumbleton Deacon Assistant 1854

7. Edward Owen, the Curate, is also Lecturer in Modern History in Jesus College.

8. On Sundays and Holy Days, Morning Prayer at 11 or after University Sermon. Afternoon Prayers at 4 evening in winter at 6.30 (to be 7). On week days Morning Prayer at 8, afternoon at 4. Sermons always on Sunday afternoons, and when there is evening service. In the mornings only when there is no University Sermon. On Holidays occasionally and very short address. (Morning prayer with Holy Communion at 9 on Holy Thursday). Litany at 11 on Ember and Rogation Days

9. There is only a small school, seldom amounting to ten, chiefly girls. They are frequently catechised on the week day morning, saying the whole or part of the Church Catechism, and answering questions on its meaning. The younger children first learn a short catechism.

10. Every Sunday, Holiday, and Thursday at seven a.m., also during Christmas, Easter, Whitsun, Ascension and Holy Week daily. On the Great Festivals and the first Sunday in the month also after Morning prayer.

11. Christmas and Easter about 78, about 40 Parishioners Whitsunday and first Sunday in month 50 about 20 Parishioners.
Early Communion days about 10.
I have no exact list. Many members of the University and others out of the parish communicate here.

12. 250 (conjectural).
No great variation, except with season.

13. The attendance of Parishioners is fair, though not fully satisfactory. There are a few Dissenters, and some other persons who rarely come to church. Two or three, who have come from other parishes, prefer their former churches.

The Boatman’s Chapel².

³A wooden building erected in 1839 by Henry Ward for the use of the boatmen and their families.
The South African Mission
The Radcliffe Infirmary
The Wives and Children of men on foreign service
15. Only a small school for girls and young children rarely exceeding 10 in number, supported by the Offertory, and an unknown contributor. There are not more than ten houses occupied by strictly poor persons in the Parish.
18. I think only four householders (one of whom is frequently at Church). No Dissenting place of worship
19. Having no Dissenting Chapel I know nothing of the proceedings of Dissenters. I may mention that we counted our own congregation simply as it happened to be on the day specified. I am not aware that any pains were taken to increase it for the occasion.
20. The chief difficulty is that of access to the Middle class. Persons are so occupied that it is difficult to form classes for Confirmation. And I found them usually but little acquainted with Holy Scripture. There are exceptions.
21. Yes
They are very firmly attentive to their duties
22. The choristers have been vested in surplices, and placed in the Nave, and four men have joined them as singers, (not in surplices). The behaviour of the boys, as well as their singing, is improved, and the congregation in general, I believe, approve of the changes. The Psalms are now chanted throughout.

12. Morning about 400, Evening about 600, less in summer, more in winter. In point of numbers the Congregation is stationary.

13. I am grieved to say that the Congregation does not bear a fair proportion to the Population. Some of those attending is the Church are strangers. The place was many years without a church.

10. Once a month: and on the greater Festivals of the Church
11. I cannot state this accurately being always at Carfax on the greater Festivals. I keep a list of Communicants whenever I am personally celebrating.
12. Perhaps 200 morning and 350 evening—Decreasing I think

16. Occasionally but very seldom
17. An adult School was tried but did not succeed
18. The Baptist Chapel, New Road. Probably 200 Dissenters, and I grieve to say several who are of no religion at all. The dissenters in point of influence and numbers are decidedly on the decrease. I have seen a good deal of the Baptist Minister of the Chapel, which is in my parish, Mr. Bryan, who lately seceded from the charge of it.
19. I am surprised at the statements made in the census, but cannot explain them.
20. Account some difficulties if a local character. I have nevertheless much to be thankful for. I think hopefully of the present state of my Parish.
21. Tolerably so. Certainly not so clean as it ought to be. Of the present churchwardens more especially the Parish Churchwarden (lately the Parish Clerk) I can say little. The latter is certainly very unfit for the office.
22. None to my knowledge.
23. I wish to bring under the Bishop's notice the great discouragement which I, and perhaps others of my brethren labour under in the support of our Schools. For more than seven years my school has never cost me less than 20s. per annum from my private resources. This considering the wealth and luxury of Oxford "ought not to be so to be."

GT. ROLLRIGHT

July 9 1856

My dear Lord

You invite in your Visitation Queries a statement of any difficulties in the Ministry and suggestion of remedies. There was hardly space on the Paper, and I send you a few words on a point we all feel a great difficulty, that is the want of any tangible discipline among our people. There is the utmost difficulty in making them at all realise the corporate character of the Church. The various sects all exercise some kind of discipline over their members—they feel they belong to a body, and have a common interest in its concerns.
VISITATION 1854

Now I do not for a moment think that any compulsory discipline is ever likely to be put in force, nor would it be practicable, in the temper of men’s minds, if it were. But might there not be in each Parish a voluntary Society, bound by the disciplinary rules of the Church, rubrics and canons, with special rules to be approved by the Bishop, and perhaps meeting togr. in special services either in the Church or elsewhere?

The subject has long been before my mind, “How can I get these people to feel they belong to the Church?” The close contact afforded at seasons of Confirmation is most blessed, and one longs to be able to keep the same hold over the Candidates for some period after. My meagre notions seems to have taken a more consistent form after reading the Article on “Ch. of E. Religs. Socy.” in the current No. of the Xtian. Remembrancer which you have probably seen.

I make no apology for troubling you with these imperfect remarks. For when a Bishop thus calls upon us Clergy the humblest may be allowed to state his grievance.

Believe me my dear Lord
Yrs. affy. and obliged
W. C. Raffles Flint

19. I am much more ignorant than I wish respecting the last Census, which was taken before my institution.
20. The low state of education, morals and church going, and feeling must, I fear, be attributed to previous neglect. Nothing could be more lamentable than the condition in which the parish was found, and it must now be by long, quiet, and persevering labour, that the evil can be repaired and any effectual change produced. The opening of another place of worship at Witheridge Hill has had the best effect. It is used and thankfully attended by the poor, and in time, with a resident Curate, may be expected to succeed, but great time and patience will be required for this good end.

8. Three Services with a Sermon after each, on Sundays commencing respectively at 11 A.M., 3 P.M. and ½ past 6 P.M.
9. The Children are not catechised, except those that attend the School, and then in School
10. On the first Sunday in each month and on the Greater Festivals and Good Friday
VISITATION 1854

11. About 40 at the great festivals. About 25 on the other occasions. I do not keep a list of communicants
12. About 300. The numbers have increased during the last 9 months owing to the closing of Henley Church.
13. The no. of attendants at Church belonging to the Chapelry does not bear a fair proportion to the Population. I know of no particular reason for the fact
14. The Society for the propagation of the Gospel. Several collections for the incidental expenses of the Churchwardens
15. An Infants' School in connection with the Church, and a mixed School on the British System. The Infants' School is supported by annual subscribers. There are about 80 children on its books
16. On leaving the Infants' School, the children mostly attend at the Natl. schools of Henley, and none that have left those Schools attend the Sunday School of the Chapelry.
17. None
18. The Congregational Chapel, supported by the Dissenters of Henley, mainly. I cannot state with any certainty the number of Dissenters within the limits of the Chapelry.
21. It is. They do
22. The Reading Desk and Pulpit have been made to interchange positions, under the authority of the Churchwardens. Gangway has been cut through the seats under the wall of the south side aisle, under the same authority, with (I believe) the sanction of the Diocesan.

9. During Lent and Advent in the morning weekly service, entirely without Book.
10. On the principal Holy Days and every other month
11. Varying from 80 to 100 or 120. The average is never less. I have not a list, but I remember the Communicants.
12. The Church is quite full on Sundays. We could scarcely hold more than do come.
13. Yes
   The Diocesan College at Culham
   The Propagation of the Gospel.
15. This is the last negative answer to the question, which ever, I trust, need be given. The Shipton and Milton schools are both almost finished. The Lineham is supported by Mr. Langston and goes on well.
16. None in Shipton. There are three in Milton. The number of Dissenters in Shipton amounting perhaps to four or five individuals. In Milton and Lineham there are a great number, probably two thirds of the population, but I verily believe their Dissent or at least the Dissent of the majority will be at once overcome by the New Church.
17. Shipton Church needs as much as any I saw Restoration. I cannot say that it is in good repair, tho' it is free from weather etc. There are also things necessary for the performance of Divine Service. The Churchwardens are excellent.

9. They are catechised in their schoolroom frequently but not in church.
10. Four times a year.
11. The average of attendants at the Holy Communion is from 26 to 30.
The average is 120, on the increase. The chapel frequently is quite full.

I think it does altho' there is great Dissent in the neighbourhood.

A sermon for thePropagation of the Gospel.

A Parish day and Sunday school supported entirely by contributions.

Day Scholars from 35 to 40
Sunday — from 50 to 60

Very few, and these irregular in attendance.

No.

One Wesleyan Chapel, many of whose members attend the Church, and nearly all their children ! ! !

The probable number is about 60 or 80.

The necessity of the Clergyman's living so far from his cure, (there being no residence in Ramsden) is a great impediment.

It is in good repair and is duly provided with all things necessary for performance of Divine Service. The Chapel Warden is not a Communicant but is attentive to his secular duties.

No. A good stove has been presented, which was much required.

    About 24 Dissenters including 20 Romanists
    The Dissenters (not Romanists) frequently come to Church.

19. I believe that in my Parish the returns were correctly given, forms referring to the matters on which information was sought for were sent to myself, and I believe to the churchwardens, and the answers sent were correct to the best of our judgement.

20. No. I am thankful to say that there is a desire to profit by the ministrations of the Church: and my Parish is happily free from any Dissenting Place of worship, and has no beer-shop to tempt the people to intemperance.

21. My Church is in good substantial repair, and duly provided with all necessaries for divine service. My churchwardens discharge their duties efficiently in the church and out of it, and rarely miss an opportunity of attending the Holy Communion

22. Last year the Chancel arch was rebuilt, the chancel walls restored on the inside, and the whole chancel paved with Minton’s tiles.
   In the body of the Church several high pews were cut down, and the position of the reading desk was changed. These repairs and alterations took place with the sanction, and many of them at the suggestion of the late Rural Dean, the Revd. H. Roundell.

8. Every month, besides Good Friday and the Great Festivals
9. 22 and 12
10. About 100. I fear not increasing.
11. Scarcely. To the inconvenient position of the church, on the top of the hill, at the farthest part of the village, while the "Chapel" is central on the level. Dissent is rife.
VISITATION 1854

14. 2 for Parish Clubs, Nat. Society, Culham College and Soldiers' wives
16. Pretty well.
17. An Evening School in winter, it has a very beneficial influence in civilising the young lads, not so much from the instruction given as from intercourse with their betters.
18. A Wesleyan Meeting-house. I do not know the number of members, but almost all the villagers attend the "Chapel" or the Preaching on the Green on Sunday afternoon.
19. No
20. The Chapel and Sunday School attached to it affords a place of refuge to every boy who dislikes correction, which is therefore less enforced than it should be, lest the boys should be lost to the Church and its influence

17. Yes, by an evening School, as above, which is attended with very fair success.

18. One, for Wesleyans. Comparatively speaking few would acknowledge themselves dissenters, tho' many, who come to Church, go to Meeting House also.

19. The person from whom information could be obtained has left the Parish, and therefore could not be enquired of without delay.

20. There can be no doubt that a dissenting leaven in a Parish tends much to hinder our work, which it is hoped, however, time will tend to diminish.

21. The Church cannot be said to be in bad repair, or unprovided with things necessary. It is hoped, nevertheless, that now very shortly the whole will be put in a condition more worthy God's House, and the place of Divine Service.1

22. None, I think, of sufficient extent to specify or such as called for the intervention of the Ordinary.

1 The Bishop visited on March 16 1855 and thought "the taking away of the gallery a great gain. The parsonage house too small in its rooms etc., and the money too much laid out on small ornaments, but a wonderful gain to have got a resident clergyman." Diocese Book, f. 551a.

The National Society.

Only one Daily and Sunday School supported by myself, and the children's pence. About 30

Generally, yes

No

There are two dissenting chapels in the Parish, and probably two thirds of the Parish are more or less Dissenters

I was not here at the time, I cannot give an opinion.

The great Impediment to the Church and true religion here, is the disaffection caused by Dissent, the Chapels being mainly supported by surrounding Parishes. Keeps our poor disaffected.

The Church is in a very bad unseemly state. It much requires restoration. But the parish is so small and poor that I fear I cannot expect much from them. The Churchwardens are well disposed.

None

The Church and School need much external aid, and on these points I should be very glad to obtain the Bishop's advice.

March 1855. "Moving to restore church at estimated cost of £700—£200 to be raised on Rates. Mr. L. responsible for rest. I promise to help him and preach at opening." Jan 2 1856. "Go to the re-opening and preach on Isaiah xxxiii 18, 19... The church exceedingly well restored." Diocese Book, f. 50.

4. No
5. Yes. Trinity Sunday last.
7. No
8. Two services every Sunday. Mg. at 11. Aft. at 3. A sermon at each.
   The same on Xmas day. Two services in Mg. and Evg. on Good Friday and Ascension Day, but on the latter day only one sermon. Evg. Prayers or Litany and Sermons on Wednesday and Friday in Lent. Mg. Prayers every day in Passion Week, also on Easter Monday and Tuesday.
9. Before each service, I retain the method of asking questions independently of any other book but the bible and Catechism. The children read the lessons of the day and then are examined in them and in the Catechism and other points arising therefrom.
10. The first Sunday in every month and on Easter and Whit Sundays and Xmas Day.
11. About 14 on the whole number of Sundays. I have never been able to secure a larger attendance at the great festivals, partly I think from the frequent custom of the villagers going to pay visits on such occasions.
    Owing to the smallness of the number I do not keep a regular list.
12. About 40 in the morning, and 30 in the afternoon, excluding children—
    I consider it rather decreasing than otherwise.
13. I do not consider the proportion what it ought to be, though the parish has lately decreased in number, and I attribute the deficiency in some degree to the farm-work on Sundays
14. For the Soldiers Wives and children, and the S.P.G.
15. There is a day school for children, and a Sunday school. The former is a dame’s school hitherto held in the dame’s house, but now to be held in the new School Room, which is also to be used as a Sunday school (instead of the Church). The only support is the children’s pence, and a slight and uncertain donation from two farmers saving what the incumbent may add.
    There are about twenty at present at the Sunday school and from that to 30 at the day school, including Infants. The former number is below the average.
16. Generally speaking the boys attend regularly till their confirmation, and the girls till about the same time unless they go into service.
17. The last two years the Evening school has been discontinued owing to the Clerk who acts as School master to the boys on Sunday (for a small extra pay) being unwilling to have it in his cottage, but now that a good School Room has been built I hope to renew it both for boys and adults.
18. There is a room licensed for worship attached to a farmer’s residence, who himself preaches. It was licensed for Plymouth brethen, but I should say that the attendants did not belong to any denomination. Another house is licensed for Particular Baptists but very rarely used. I think the number of regular dissenters (adults) is 15 at most. I have reason to know that the children of one of the farmers (a P. Baptist) are favourably disposed to the Church.
19. I sent a (private) report of the state to the Registrar General with such explanatory remarks I thought conducive to a true estimate: I am not aware whether the Dissenting Minister sent any account.

20. The early age at which children go to work is one great evil, and I can divine no remedy for the avarice of farmers or the indifference of parents. I could not help sympathizing with Mr. Cobden's view of making such early work illegal. Another great want is I think more tolerance among the clergy (if unity is impossible) and less of extreme views. As to details, greater freedom as to services, as provision for a little decent music (not choral service or intoning). In the former instance I beg leave to say that great good would I think arise from a short characteristic service for the evenings in Passion Week. At present in such a parish as this the morning service which is distinctive cannot be made generally useful.

21. The Church is in good repair on the whole, but the senior Churchwarden who naturally is allowed by the other to have his own way, requires to have regularity in his duties enforced upon him. It was the habit here to do everything of this kind irregularly. Things are slightly improved but not I think satisfactory in this respect, but I do not think any good would arise from any steps being taken during the life time of the present Senior Churchwarden. If hereafter there are still Ch. wardens I am in hopes of improvement.

22. No alterations have been made.

23. No, unless it is to request a rather longer notice for the probably ensuing Confirmation and if compliable with your Lordship's arrangements.

*It seems to me that this remark does not apply with especial propriety to this neighbourhood, but the point which led me to make it is the exaggerated prominence which is given to distinctive views whether "Evangelical" or "High Church" by so many earnest-minded persons.

1The Bishop expressed another point of view in A Charge delivered at the triennial Visitations of the Diocese (1857), p.10—"When their leaving school is bona fide the consequence of their having reached the age at which they can, in work and service, at once enter upon the true labour of their lives and learn in its lower beginnings what will make them hereafter better workmen, I do not think we ought to regret their changing the class-room for the farm-yard, the stable or the field."

19. I am not yet sufficiently acquainted with the parish to be able to do so.
20. Perhaps the prevalence of Dissent and the ignorance of the parishioners of the claims of the Church.
   In as much as many are driven from the Church by the Pew system, the first remedy is to get rid of that. The N. Schools ought to be removed.
21. In good repair except as to the mullions of some of the windows. Well furnished. Ch. Wardens very regular in the discharge of their duties, and desirous of supporting the Rector in everything.
22. None, as far as I know.
23. Nothing as peculiar to the Parish, but as perhaps affects other parishes as well. Some enactment is urgently required to legalise the tenure of School premises so as to give them a marketable title, when at present they have none.

8. On Sundays Morning Service with Sermon at 11 o'clock Afternoon at 3, with Extempore Lecture except there by a Baptism.
   On Christmas Day, Ascension Day etc. services with Sermons. Friday Evening services in Lent at 6.30 with Sermon.
9. There has been no public catechising yet, but an intention of introducing it at Afternoon Services as near as practicable.
10. At present four times a year, but after the Confirmation it will be administered oftener.
11. About 30
12. Almost 150, including the School children.
   Much as before, perhaps slightly increased, but several come twice regularly instead of once.
13. No. There is little prospect of the attendance being much improved until there be a resident Incumbent, and more accomodation in the Church, but there is no resident landholder to interest himself in procuring Funds.
14. Last Sunday for the S.P.G. I believe there has not been a Charity Sermon for a very long time before this.
15. Day Schools
    Mixed The girls in the Infant School are not all under Infant six years. The total number on the books in both schools is 91. Average attendance 79.
   Sunday Schools
   Boys No payment.
   Girls
   Supported partly by subscriptions, partly by Schoolpence, but mainly at the expense of the Incumbent.
16. I can only speak of one or two that have left since my Incumbency, these come as far as their employments will allow.
   Several come for a time, but as I was unable to be in two schools at once, and there are no volunteer teachers in the parish, they found it tedious and cease to come.
17. No. I am unwilling to tax the Schoolmaster beyond the regular School hours. It would also encourage parents to remove the children earlier from School. If I was resident I could find means to bring adults to me.
18. None. The Dissenters in this parish go to Summertown or Oxford. I should say the number is about 12, but the majority of people are simply indifferent and go to no place of worship.
   An enlarged Church would take away excuses.
   An enlarged Schoolroom would smooth the way for the education of Adults.
21. The timbers of the roof are in a decayed state. The flooring and flagstones have been recently repaired. All necessaries are provided sufficiently. The Churchwardens do their duty.

22. The pews have been removed from the Nave, also the Reading Desk, and the Chancel screen. One new seat placed in the Nave. In the Chancel the old Pews removed, and new seats placed stall-wise; a new altar and rails; the floor level raised. The old pavement removed and marble and coloured tiles placed in its room. These alterations were carried out under the superintendence of the Diocesan Architect\(^1\). The Bishop was made acquainted with the fact that alterations were completed.

\(^1\)George Edmund Street (1824-81). D.N.B.
8. On Sundays there is Morning service at 11 A.M. and afternoon at 2½ P.M. (with Sermons) at Wroxton and Balscott alternately. There is also Morning Prayer at Wroxton every Wednesday at 9 A.M. and on Saints’ days at the same hour, without sermons.
9. Private Catechising in my usual visits to the school
10. The custom has hitherto been to administer the Sacrament of the Lord’s Supper 4 times every year in each parish.
11. Wroxton 30-35. Balscott 12-16. A list of communicants has been kept during the last year.
14. The Culham Diocesan Training College
15. A daily school (mixed) Wroxton, 68 children
   A daily school (mixed) Balscott, 40 children
16. Very few of them have attended hitherto.
17. An Evg. school for the men will be opened in the winter. There is a Bible Class for adults in the Schoolroom on Wednesday evenings, when a portion of Scripture is explained in a familiar manner, and the people encouraged to ask questions. It is not mistaken for a public service and seems to be strengthening the affections of the people towards their Church and Pastor, as well as affording them instruction.
18. Wroxton. 1 Independ. 1 Wesleyan.
   Balscott. 1 Wesleyan.
19. The numbers were returned by the Dissenters according to the supposed attendance at their chapels. But there being no 2nd service, many Church people are in the habit of attending as well as many who are nothing at all.
20. The dislocation of work resulting from the union of 2 district parishes under one Clergyman, and the consequent impossibility of supplying them sufficiently with the public services of the Church. No present relief seems apparent.
21. Wroxton Church is in excellent keeping and repair. The Chancel of Balscott as well as the pulpit and desk are in very poor condition. One of the Wroxton churchwardens is a Dissenter and was thrust into office against his will. He never attends Church. The others are very exemplary in the discharge of their duties.
22. The high pews in the Chancel of Wroxton Church have been replaced by stalls, and a warming apparatus (hot water) been fitted up under the direction of Col. North.¹

YARNTON Deanery of Woodstock
Vaughan Thomas. Vicar

1. Vaughan Thomas¹ No. 60 High Street, Oxford and Vicarage House, Yarnton
   Date of Institution Feb. 12. 1803. Date of Induction Feb. 24, 1803
2. During the first part of last year the Revd. John Thorp lived in the house as my assistant Curate. Since he left I have retained a Room in the House for myself, the rest of it with the Garden forms part of the Salary of the Reverend Henry Octavius Coxe² my present assistant Curate. Though I do not reside I take the whole morning duty on Sundays. I also visit the sick and attend to the School and am at Yarnton 2 or 3 times in the week. The sick are also visited and the School attended by Mr. Coxe. I live at my own House No. 60 High Street Oxford.

3. I have said I take the whole morning duty on Sundays, to that I have to add that during Lent I read Prayers every Friday as also Ash Wednesday and every day in Passion Week and on the two days in Easter and Whitsun Week and also on Ascension Day. My present assistant Curate is the Revd. Henry O. Coxe a.m. At 77 I find such assistance necessary at all times comfortable.

4. I hold Stoneleigh, Warwickshire, where I have succeeded in making a District Chapelry and building a Chapel towards which and its fittings I gave £700 together with an immediate endowment of £52 17 0 per ann. out of my Rent Charges. All this was settled and done 10 years ago. I have also a college living, Dunsbourn, Gloucesteshire, where I have built a handsome Parsonage House without leaving any charge upon the Living. I serve no other cure than that of Yarnton, the duties of which I have discharged personally (with intervals of absence) 51 years.

5. My Curate is the Revd. Henry O. Coxe whose stipend, in all its particulars, I stated upon his appointment. He is not licensed although his Nomination was forwarded to the Bishop’s Secretary last December.

6. The Revd. Henry O. Coxe. He is a priest and none but a priest is fit to be assistant Curate to an aged Incumbent. I therefore object to give my Curacy as a Title for Orders. I gave it to the Revd. Richd. Tudor to do him a friendly service but I found the ill effect of it. He held it 2 years but would not complete his Orders.

7. The Revd. Henry O. Coxe is one of the Lecturers at Carfax in the City of Oxford, the Duties of which Lectureship do not interfere with and prevent the performance of the duties of his assistant Curacy.

8. Sunday Duty. Service and Sermon, Morning and Evening. In Lent, Ash Wednesday and every Friday morning. In Passion week every day in the morning, the same on the Monday and Tuesday Easter Week, Ascension Day, and the Monday and Tuesday Whitsun week. I have also three Morning Prayer Days in the Yarnton Aisle according to Sir Thomas Spencer’s will—Jany. 1, March 6, April 30.

9. The Catechizing of the Children according to the Church Catechism takes place in the Schoolroom as part of the school teaching. As to other methods catechised, I question the children after morning service upon such subjects as the Scriptures (read on Sunday) may present or suggest.

10. Christmas Day, Easter Day, and Sunday following Whitsunday and the Sunday after Michaelmas. I have also continued the custom I found at Yarnton in 1803 to administer the Sacrament on Good Friday. In cases of dangerous illness, I administer it to the Sick at their homes.

11. Upon this point there can be no doubt as the names of the communicants are entered in a Book. There were 24 last Whitsunday and on other occasions they vary being 14, 15, 16. The attendance of the Farmers and their families is much more satisfactory than that of the labouring poor 12. About 150. Three years ago I returned the average at 100. Tho' far from satisfactory it is better than what it was and far better than what it was 30 years ago.

13. The population is 300. As to deficient attendance, I attribute it to the efforts made by the Dissenters of Oxford in sending out their Preachers, being specially anxious at this time to support the numbers of Dissenters they have given in their pretended Census. They have agreed with me not to hold their meetings before 6 on Sundays

14. The National Society May 9 1853 Collection £2 10 7
The Culham College Oct. 23 1853 Collection £2 2 6
The Propagation of the Gospel Decr. 18 1853 Collection £1 16 10
The Soldiers Wives and Children April 26 1854 Collection £2 18 0
For Sons of the Clergy July 16 1854 Collection £2 6 0

15. There is one day school for the Children of the Poor established by me in 1803. It is for children above 4 years old and for their instruction as long as their parents will let them stay. On Sundays 6 boys and 3 girls are added to the Number. With the exception of a small balance of about £3 left after repairing the Clerk's house, I support the School paying the School Mistress £12 12 per ann. with Dress, Shoes, Bonnet £1 0 0. Books, Writing Books, Slates etc. and a full suit of Clothing for Boys and Girls on New Years Day. The Bishop of St. Asaph⁴ as a Land owner gives £1 : 0 : 0 and that is the only subscription

16. A very important question. If I can secure their Sunday attendance I must be satisfied. Their field employments and earnings stand in the way of their attendance at School after they are old enough for any profitable service.

17. There is neither an adult or evening School at Yarnton and the population too small and too widely scattered to keep up a good class and the Parish too poor to maintain a suitable Schoolmaster.

18. I believe John Herbert's cottage is licensed. Farmer Johnston recently come from Warwickshire, the only dissenting Farmer of the Parish, has Prayer Meetings at his house. The Ranters preach, but still after 6 o'clock in the open air. There are about 20 Dissenters who never come to Church

19. I have enquired of the Churchwardens and others about this Census but they have none of them heard of it neither have I. I cannot learn who or by whom it was taken. I never saw it and can give no account of it

20. The obvious cause of failure in my endeavour to bring the People to Church in greater numbers is to be found in the language of encouragement addressed to the Dissenters by men of influence in high places within as well as without the pale of the Church. This produces greater activity in their Preachers and greater difficulty in resisting their influence

21. In all these particulars I have every reason to be satisfied

22. I have to report nothing worthy of official statement

23. The Spirit of the age and the forlorn aspect of Church affairs and of the Church itself (as a visible establishment recognized by the Law of the Land and entitled to the aid and protection of the State) are such as to forbid my entertaining any hope of good from what I may have to suggest and submit to the Bishop's Notice.
